The Diaries Of Gouverneur Morris European Travels 1794 1798:

The Diaries of Gouverneur Morris Gouverneur Morris,2011 This volume is a collection of diary entries by the New York native who embarked for Europe at the end of 1788 returning ten years later The statesman witnessed the eruption of the French Revolution and the onset of the French Revolutionary Wars and was the American minister to France from 1792 to 1794 Robert Morris's Folly Ryan K. Smith,2014-09-23 In 1798 Robert Morris financier of the American Revolution confidant of George Washington former U S senator plunged from the peaks of wealth and prestige into debtors prison and public contempt How could one of the richest men in the United States one of only two founders who signed the Declaration of Independence the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution suffer such a downfall This book examines for the first time the extravagant Philadelphia town house Robert Morris built and its role in bringing about his ruin Part biography part architectural history the book recounts Morris s wild successes as a merchant his recklessness as a land speculator and his unrestrained passion in building his palatial doomed mansion once hailed as the most expensive private building in the United States but later known as Morris s Folly Setting Morris s tale in the context of the nation s founding this volume refocuses attention on an essential yet nearly forgotten American figure while also illuminating the origins of America s ongoing ambivalent attitudes toward the superwealthy and their sensational excesses The Hamiltonian Vision, 1789-1800

The Papers of George Washington: 1 April-21 September 1796 George Washington, 1987 The Papers of George Washington a grant funded project was established in 1968 at the University of Virginia under the joint auspices of the University and the Mount Vernon Ladies Association of the Union to publish a comprehensive edition of Washington's correspondence. Letters written to Washington as well as letters and documents written by him are being published in the complete edition that will consist of approximately ninety volumes. The work is now 2011 more than two thirds complete. The edition is supported financially by grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the National Historical Publications and Records Commission, the Mount Vernon Ladies Association, the University of Virginia, and gifts from private foundations and individuals. Today there are copies of over 135 000 Washington documents in the project's document room. This is one of the richest collections of American historical manuscripts extant. There is almost no facet of research on life and enterprise in the late colonial and early national periods that will not be enhanced by material from these documents. The publication of Washington's papers will make this source material available not only to scholars but to all Americans interested in the founding of their nation. Publisher The
