Power in Politics and Academia in Jonathan Coe's Novels Denisa Dumitrascu, 2018-04-18 This book explores the intricate manifestations of contemporary power its related ideology and the resistance and reaction to the dominant discourse in Jonathan Coe s political fiction covering the dismantling of the British social democratic consensus Thatcherism and Blairism up to the new ideology of Globalism Beyond the predictable dichotomy of support opposition to power the book argues the modern individual seems to have found another ontological approach for which it coins the concept of intentional unpower Furthermore it demonstrates that there are three possibilities regarding the evolution of this type of social response and invites the readers to discover them while enjoying Coe s subtlety and humour Given its broad approach the book will appeal to researchers in a wide range of domains including literary and cultural studies political theory and sociology as well as any reader fascinated with the essence of power intellectual response and discourses containing their own elements of subversion

Deleuze's Literary Theory Catarina Pombo Nabais, 2020-08-10 Literature holds a privileged place in Deleuze s works Not only is it the art that most clearly reveals his aesthetics but it also serves as the laboratory of his thought the space where he experiments with concepts that become part of his ongoing philosophical project In this brilliant analyses of Deleuze s texts on Proust Sacher Masoch Kafka Carmelo Bene Melville and Beckett Pombo Nabais traces the development of Deleuze s aesthetics across three distinct periods of his thought the transcendental empiricism of Difference and Repetition and The Logic of Sense the philosophy of Nature of Anti Oedipus and A Thousand Plateaus and the philosophy of Spirit of The Fold What Is Philosophy and Essays Critical and Clinical More than a simple account of Deleuze's literary theory and aesthetics this book offers a provocative and original reading of Deleuze's entire philosophy highlighting the question of modality the actual the virtual the possible the impossible and the impossible the problematic relationship between the event and the assemblage and the unifying theme of the vitalism of nonorganic life

The Colonial Wars in Contemporary Portuguese Fiction Isabel Moutinho, 2008 The Portuguese fiction that awakened public debate on imperialism The colonial wars in Angola Mozambique and Guinea Bissau in the 1960s and 1970s were Portugal's Vietnam The novels discussed in this study written by Ant nio Lobo Antunes L dia Jorge and Manuel Alegre among others aroused passionate responses from the reading public and initiated a national debate otherwise lacking in the contemporary press with their systematic deconstruction of the rhetoric of patriotism and colonialism of Ant nio Salazar's regime The author's approach is of necessity grounded in postcolonial thought as these works represent the awakening of a post imperial conscience in Portuguese literature and society ISABEL MOUTINHO is a Lecturer in Spanish and Portuguese at La Trobe University Australia

Novels W. Wilkie Collins, 1890 The Waverley Novels Walter Scott, 1912 Framing the Margins Phillip Brian Harper, 1994-01-06 This dramatic rereading of postmodernism seeks to broaden current theoretical conceptions of the movement as both a social philosophical condition and a literary and cultural phenomenon Phil Harper contends that the fragmentation considered to be characteristic of the postmodern age can in fact be traced to the status of marginalized groups in the United States since long before the contemporary era This status is reflected in the work of American writers from the thirties through the fifties whom Harper addresses in this study including Nathanael West Ana's Nin Djuna Barnes Ralph Ellison and Gwendolyn Brooks Treating groups that are disadvantaged or disempowered whether by circumstance of gender race or sexual orientation the writers profiled here occupy the cusp between the modern and the postmodern between the recognizably modernist aesthetic of alienation and the fragmented disordered sensibility of postmodernism Proceeding through close readings of these literary texts in relation to various mass cultural productions Harper examines the social placement of the texts in the scope of literary history while analyzing more minutely the interior effects of marginalization implied by the fictional characters enacting these narratives In particular he demonstrates how these works represent the experience of social marginality as highly fractured and fracturing and indicates how such experience is implicated in the phenomenon of postmodernist fragmentation Harper thus accomplishes the vital task of recentring cultural focus on issues and groups that are decentered by very definition and thereby specifies the sociopolitical significance of postmodernism in a way that has not yet been done
