Chicken Soup for the Soul series and Chocolate for A Woman's Soul by going beyond mind and spirit nurturing to the wonderful experience of nurturing in water. As an aquatics fitness instructor and therapist for over twenty years Julianne Larson has observed water's unmistakable power to foster bonds between women. Perhaps because water has been an archetypal female symbol for thousands of years women find great nurturing potential in a shared aquatic environment. Water is a gentle healer and can consequently provide significant mental, spiritual and physical benefits as one moves one's body within it. As Larson demonstrates through this collection of true stories a pool of water can improve one's well-being, body image and overall fitness while working to provoke positive life change. Water Dance opens all women young and old to entirely new ways of nurturing themselves and one another improving their lives in the process. New Age Journal, 1994

Alter, 1991 This book traces the intellectual history of twentieth century dance theory from its dependence on aesthetics for its model of conceptualization to its emergence as an autonomous field primarily dependent on dance practice and experience. This history is traced through the analysis of writing on dance by dance theorists Elizabeth Selden Margaret H. Doubler John Martin Rudolf Laban and aestheticians Susanne K. Langer R. G. Collingwood Nelson Goodman and eleven other aestheticians who discussed dance in their aesthetic analyses of the arts. The analysis is organized by the author's Framework of Topics Intrinsic to Dance Theory which was inductively derived from all the writings and the author's extensive experience in dance.    Thoughts on Evangelization Thomas Menampampil, 1997
