About the Expert

Bobby Duke has been an avid NFL fan for over 25 years. Go Pack Go! and has been playing, commissioning and analyzing different strategies relating to fantasy football for close to two decades. He is currently a contributing writer for various popular sports websites where he analyzes weekly fantasy football topics and trends. He also teaches discussion-based football-centric classes for K-12 students via Outschool.com, an online education marketplace. Bobby's love for the game of football stems from his lively interactions growing up watching the sport with family and friends. Since then, this interest has flourished into deep-dive fantasy analysis, various league types, and watching events every Sunday afternoon. Having been a science educator, education consultant, and sports coach for nearly a decade, Bobby has always had a true passion for creating genuine connections by helping people explore their interests. Using the strategic methods and active participation traits the game of fantasy football offers, he enjoys finding ways to help participants expand their knowledge and love for the sport. HowExpert publishes quick how-to guides on all topics from A to Z by everyday experts.

Planning an Applied Research Project in Hospitality, Tourism, and Sports Frederic B. Mayo, 2013-10-22 Planning an Applied Research Project in Hospitality, Tourism and Sports provides a comprehensive and carefully structured treatment of all the aspects involved in planning a research project. Instead of being a statistically oriented book, this text provides a conceptual and process oriented approach to planning and conducting research. Written for both students and professionals, it is easy to read, short and to the point (i.e. practical). The book provides basic yet comprehensive information about doing research and can be used not only in a research methods course where students will have to plan and conduct a research project but also in earlier course work to help students learn to write research papers. Planning an Applied Research Project in Hospitality, Tourism and Sports covers a range of subjects including selecting a topic, conducting a literature review, developing a coherent design and using various research techniques such as interviews, questionnaires and observations. It also contains information on analyzing data once it has been collected and developing a proposal to obtain support before undertaking a research project. Unique coverage includes 2 chapters on conducting and writing a literature review, 1 chapter on analyzing data from both a qualitative and quantitative perspective, 1 chapter on writing a research proposal and 3 detailed chapters on techniques.
