Ross Melnick

Max Streaming Reddit Usa:

Streaming Media and Cultural Memory in a Postdigital Society Renira Rampazzo Gambarato, Johannes Heuman, 2024-12-31 This book offers a relevant contribution to the studies of streaming media and transmediality with an original approach of cultural sustainability perfectly intertwined with cultural memory beyond borders. By critically reflecting on popular streaming media series the book identifies their impact on the global circulation of cultural memory, their learning potential for educational purposes and the societal challenges and opportunities that emerge from the ubiquitous streaming media penetration and potential for participatory practices. It also investigates how series available worldwide on commercial platforms such as Netflix and Max contribute to the global circulation of cultural memories in addition to illuminating the ethical, unsustainable and educational concerns involved in the fictionalization of the past. Drawing on the authors expertise in media studies and history this transdisciplinary book will interest scholars in the fields of media studies, cultural studies, memory studies, history, transmedia studies, education, postdigital studies, television studies, social communication, sociology and philosophy.

Hollywood's Embassies Ross Melnick, 2022-04-26 Winner 2024 Culbert Family Book Prize International Association for Media and History Winner 2022 Richard Wall Memorial Award Theatre Library Association Beginning in the 1920s audiences around the globe were seduced not only by Hollywood films but also by lavish movie theaters that were owned and operated by the major American film companies. These theaters aimed to provide a quintessentially American experience. Outfitted with American technology and accoutrements they allowed local audiences to watch American films in an American owned cinema in a distinctly American way. In a history that stretches from Buenos Aires and Tokyo to Johannesburg and Cairo Ross Melnick considers these movie houses as cultural embassies. He examines how the exhibition of Hollywood films became a constant flow of political and consumerist messaging selling American ideas, products and power especially during fractious eras. Melnick demonstrates that while Hollywood's marketing of luxury and consumption often struck a chord with local audiences it was also frequently tone deaf to new social, cultural, racial and political movements. He argues that the story of Hollywood's global cinemas is not a simple narrative of cultural and industrial indoctrination and colonization. Instead it is one of negotiation, booms and busts, successes and failures, adoptions and rejections, and a precursor to later conflicts over the spread of American consumer culture. A truly global account, Hollywood's Embassies shows how the entanglement of worldwide movie theaters with American empire offers a new way of understanding film history and the history of U.S. soft power.

Social Media News Umang Marar, 2025-01-03 Social Media News Trends and Influence explores the growing role of social media as a major source of information. We emphasize the importance of accurate, relevant and timely statistics for informed decision making at local, national and global levels. Our book is designed to help budding journalists master the finer nuances of media writing.
