Mindful Morning Routine

Winged Morning Glories

My Mourning Routine

During early months of grief, my grief-management routine consisted of mourning rituals that I arranged for my family. These rituals helped me channel my emotions and my family, including my husband and young son, joined me.

I started with gratitude journaling to practice how I felt. I wrote on the calendar and put reminders for the day. Each evening, I wrote down my gratitude journal. I wrote down my emotions in my journal and my emotions in my journal. I wrote down my emotions in my journal and my emotions in my journal.

The routine also included writing a list of letters to my loved ones. I wrote a letter to my loved ones. I wrote a letter to my loved ones. I wrote a letter to my loved ones. I wrote a letter to my loved ones. I wrote a letter to my loved ones.

These early mourning steps were a foundation of healing and comfort in my life.
