Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav Rechcigl Jr.,2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates

The Global Film Market Transformation in the Post-Pandemic Era Qiao Li,David Wilson,Yanqiu Guan,2023-05-04 This book reviews the development and performance of the global film industry during the COVID 19 pandemic and examines new trends in film production distribution and consumption through a global lens The COVID 19 pandemic has had a substantial impact on the global film industry since the beginning of 2020 There has been significant transformation in terms of film production distribution and consumption Hollywood like many national cinemas across the globe has suffered the most significant impact at all levels the interruption of new film productions shutdowns of movie theatres in many countries and delays in the release of new films among them Many movies made for cinemas were forced to move from release in theatres to various streaming platforms and nontraditional production companies continued to grow their market share This book places the global film industry in a post Pandemic context It provides detailed analyses of specific systems of film production distribution and consumption in national cinemas as well as in Hollywood while also engaging with the key theoretical and methodological questions from the film studies literature This volume is a critical reference for students and scholars of film studies and general readers who are interested in the new trends and transformation of the global film industry in a post pandemic era The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license TV Guide, 2003 Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office USA Patent Office, 1899

Australian Cinema Brian McFarlane, 1988 This book explores the puzzling phenomenon of new veiling practices among lower middle class women in Cairo Egypt Although these women are part of a modernizing middle class they also voluntarily adopt a traditional symbol of female subordination How can this paradox be explained An explanation emerges which reconceptualizes what appears to be reactionary behavior as a new style of political struggle as accommodating protest These women most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy are ambivalent about working outside the home considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits At the same time they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity The new veiling expresses women's protest against this MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence
