International Comparison of Pension Systems Hongmu Lee, Gianni Nicolini, Man Cho, 2022-11-30 This book is about retirement income security. This income security is provided by national public pensions, corporate pensions and individual and reverse mortgages. However, these systems vary greatly from country to country and in many countries do not provide sufficient coverage. Ensuring income security in old age is an important issue that must be resolved in the rapidly aging environment of the world. From the perspective of financial consumers, this book cross-sectionally surveys public pensions, corporate pensions, individual pensions and reverse mortgages and compares them among many important nations. This gives many implications from the perspective of designing an overall income security for each individual. In addition, it presents many of the issues needed for these sustainable and comprehensive income security.

How to Buy a House, Condo, Or Co-op Michael C. Thomsett, 1990 How to Buy a House Condo or Co op is a reliable, accurate sourcebook that since the publication of its first edition in 1987 has guided thousands of would-be homeowners through the often rough terrain of their real estate hunt. Includes the latest information on tax laws, mortgage and interest rates, bidding strategies, property value fluctuations and more.

The Wall Street Journal , 2009 Modern Studies in Property Law, Volume 11 Sue Farran, Russell Hewitson, Adam Ramshaw, 2021-07-29 What are the contemporary challenges faced by property law as we enter the 2nd decade of the 21st century? This collection brings together the research and perspectives of an international body of academics and practitioners to consider these challenges and how even familiar topics must develop to meet new demands and developments. As with previous books in the Modern Studies in Property Law series, this volume adopts a broad approach to topics encompassed by property law in the firm belief that the boundaries that divide are shadowy at best and constantly moving in the endeavour to keep up with what is modern. This collection looks at 5 themes: Comparative perspectives including a chapter on grazing and cropping rights in Northern Ireland and analysis of the anomalies of the English trust law as seen from a civil law perspective; Taking and alienating property including a chapter on bankruptcy and the family home; Modern dilemmas including chapters on trusts in virtual currency and on smart homes; Old chestnuts, new challenges including analysis of the mortgage law reform in Scotland and a chapter on the ouster principle in common law jurisdictions; and Wills, death and other morbid topics with chapters on English succession law and the role of knowledge and approval in retrospective assessments of capacity. Unfortunately, the COVID 19 pandemic prevented the 13th biennial conference being held in 2020 as planned, but despite this the authors and co editors persevered to produce this interesting and diverse collection.
