OBJECTIVE
This section should present a quick summary of your experience, training, and highlight relevant skills for the medical role you're seeking. Many hiring managers and recruiters on average only spend a few seconds to review your CV the first time. Their primary goal is to quickly determine whether your application should be considered further. Think of this objective section as a place for a short, concise paragraph that tells them why you're a perfect fit for the position.

WORK EXPERIENCE
Registered Nurse, North San Francisco Medical Center
San Francisco, CA | 2015-2018 - Present
• Managed the operations of 2000+ nursing staff and various patient relations
• Managed business development and strategic planning of the hospital across the West Coast
• Collaborated with medical staff leaders to coordinate daily hospital activities

Health Services Manager, SAC San Francisco Department of Health
San Francisco, CA | 2012-2015 - 2015-2018
• Add your accomplishments that make the most sense and best highlight your skills
• Write a short paragraph for every job opening because it makes your resume look specific and gets your application noticed
• Double-check the dates, job titles, and names of employers and previous employers

Medical Manager, SAC San Francisco Department of Health
San Francisco, CA | 2010-2012 - 2012-2015
• Carefully read the job description and tailor your resume to highlight how you are the ideal candidate based on matching skills and experience
• Highlighting clinical capabilities is a must for every medical professional's resume and should include what sets you apart from others with similar titles

EDUCATION
Bachelor of Science | University of California School of Medicine | San Francisco, CA | 2008 - 2010
Pre-medical Studies | Sonoma State College | San Francisco, CA | 2005 - 2008
Bachelor of Science | University of California, Berkeley | San Francisco, CA | 2003 - 2005

A clear education section where you lay out the relevant training and skills you have for the job

A strong objective section that lays out who you are and why you are perfect for the job

A work experience section in chronological order from the most recent on top to the least recent at the bottom

Happy about My Resume Barbara Safani, 2008 Many great job candidates have poor resumes that are merely a laundry list of job tasks that do little to distinguish them from their competition. The average recruiter or hiring manager spends less than 15 seconds reviewing a resume. Most people's resumes fail to wow the reader and quickly end up in the no pile. Writing a resume can feel like an overwhelming task. It can seem like a Herculean effort to consolidate so much important information about a career into a one or two page document. But it doesn't have to be that way. In Happy About My Resume Barbara Safani offers 50 tips for creating compelling copy and presenting it in a powerful way to grab the hiring authority's attention and get them to pick up the phone to call you in for an interview. Safani provides practical and easy to follow advice as well as numerous samples that show each of her tips in action. The book will help readers learn how to quickly create a resume that is professional, gets them noticed, minimizes the amount of time they spend in a job search and maximizes their earning power. The book is for anyone who wants to proactively manage their career and improve the quality of their current resume or create a resume from scratch.
