FIRST THINC

Give yourself a pat on the back—the brave first step toward learning to play the violin! Playing the violin is just the beginning of an endeavor—with practice and persistence, you will learn to master the fundamentals of violin playing. My job as your instructor is to help you succeed by teaching you the basic elements of this instrument and inspiring you with a passion for the craft and creative expression. This lesson is all about the practicalities between the theoretical concepts and the physical reality of playing the violin.
