Insurance Commissioner,2006    The Other Elephant in the (Class)room Cheryl Matias,Paul C. Gorski,2023 Purposeful intentional racial bias poses an obvious threat to the possibility of real equity in schools In this volume antiracist educators explore an equally troubling but insufficiently explored threat the racism upheld by schools and districts that claim an antiracist commitment These institutions perpetuate disparities by enacting that commitment through surface level and soft diversity and inclusion goals and popular initiatives that are more equity optics than antiracism This book asks How is racism perpetuated through actions programs practices and initiatives that might appear to be inclusion oriented or progressive but never quite get around to eliminating racism How do these efforts pose as racial equity while protecting systems of advantage and disadvantage creating a sort of equity inertia The book then asks What would antiracism look like if we enacted a deeper antiracist approach What is a truer vision for racial equity A diverse collection of authors apply these questions to an equally diverse assortment of programs and practices such as trauma informed care social emotional learning restorative practices anti bias work in early childhood education
