Now the fourth volume carries the story to the present day recounting the Church's astounding growth and inspired development since 1955. As the book opens the Church has nine temples and more than one million members. Thousands of missionaries are preaching the restored gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world. And for the first time in history sacred saving ordinances are available in multiple languages. But the work of the Lord is not yet done. While many nations kindreds tongues and people thirst for restored truth the world is troubled by war civil unrest sickness hunger and prejudice. The Latter day Saints too have much to learn about each other as the Church spreads far and wide welcoming people from many cultures and traditions. The Lord's command to be one has never been more vital or more challenging for His people to follow. Sounded in Every Ear is the final book in Saints a new four volume narrative history of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints. Fast paced meticulously researched and written under the direction of the First Presidency. Saints recounts true stories of Latter day Saints across the globe and answers the Lord's call to write a history for the good of the church and for the rising generations. Doctrine and Covenants 69:8 The Book Buyer, 1897 A review and record of current literature Norton's Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular, 1851 Daniel Blum's Screen World 1969 (Screen World) (Hardcover) John Willis,
