Matkovich, 2012 15 Minutes That's as long as we think any student should have to spend formatting their papers. Unfortunately, students often spend hours trying to find answers from hard-to-follow manuals or confusing websites. Whether you want a step-by-step guide to building a title page, suggestions for writing with greater clarity or freedom from doing internet searches every time you have a question about APA standards, APA Made Easy is the only blueprint that you will need for writing in APA style. This comprehensive writing guide includes illustrated steps for formatting an APA document in Microsoft Word 2010, Microsoft Word 2011 for Mac, Microsoft Word 2013, and Apple's Pages programs. You will also learn how to build an APA-formatted paper from the ground up by understanding how to outline information you've already gathered, how to write an essay or research paper from an outline, how to write a solid introduction, how to use the required headings in a research paper including Abstracts, Method, Subjects and Participants, Materials or Apparatus, Results, and Discussion sections, building citations within your paper and on your Reference page. Also included in this guide are APA examples and high-resolution screen shots to help students correctly format documents within 15 minutes. Over 150 completed Reference examples, over 60 completed In-Text Citation examples, how to use Headings effectively in your writing, specific examples that cover how to cite new media such as blog posts, emails, websites, online lectures, computer programs, social media, and much more. A new section on using and citing DOI's (Digital Object Identifiers) for new media. A short sample paper in APA format. Interviewing and Interrogation Steve Gilbert, 2003. This text looks at the various strategies and techniques of interviewing and interrogating witnesses, victims, and suspects. Topics include types of interviews, crime scene considerations, deciding to interrogate, The Right To Remain Silent, interrogation techniques, interrogation props, defensive measures, recording the confession, etc. Gilbert takes a unique offender-based strategy that focuses on the offender and the witness type in order to create a more successful process. Rather than strictly examining the practicalities including interrogation setting, demeanor, or plan, Gilbert focuses on the why of offender confessions and witness communication.

Conducting Research in Psychology Brett W. Pelham, Hart Blanton, 2003. Pelham's text avoids the heavy scientific jargon commonly found in research methods texts. Instead, Conducting Research in Psychology features friendly prose, interesting examples, and delightful anecdotes that your students will enjoy. Pelham uses recurring examples throughout the text to illustrate chapter concepts. This brief book also includes hands-on activities that involve learning by doing, methodology exercises that encourage students to use their intuitions to understand research methods and methodology problems that teach students to apply basic research principles to novel problems.

Learners in Midlife Jo-Anne Helen Willment, 2008. Pursuing a graduate education in midlife is a transformative experience. This book guides those midlife adults who are considering completing or convocating from graduate journeys so that they can better understand what it means to be a learner in midlife. Learners in Midlife draws together the most current theories and research on midlife and applies them to the graduate experience. This research is then brought to life through the colorful personal narratives of several midlife learners who share their experiences and advice Several chapters are also included that outline a few of the many new directions opening up in workplace education Because it focuses on the learner s experience this book will be of interest to faculty and administrators responsible for part time master s programs It also offers employers and human resource personnel ideas for retaining mature employees by encouraging lifelong learning      Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004

Psychology James S. Nairne,2003      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001      Clear Thinking with Psychology John Ruscio,2002 Do your students have the tools to distinguish between the true science of human thought and behavior and pop psychology Ruscio s new book provides a tangible and compelling framework for making that distinction Because we are inundated with scientific claims the author does not merely differentiate science and pseudoscience but goes further to teach the fundamentals of scientific reasoning on which students can base their evaluation of information
