Personal Mechanic William Thomas, 2017-08-26 Personal Mechanic is another book by novice writer and expert salesman Thomas Bour His other work is entitled She Left Me for Her Sister Hard to Watch Matthew Strohl, 2024-10-15 We've never had better access to movies than we do today Thanks to streaming services video on demand boutique physical media repertory theaters and the wild frontiers of the internet we have ready access to a huge range of titles Hollywood classics art films from around the world and audacious contemporary works are all right at our fingertips Yet despite this embarrassment of riches most of us gravitate to the popular and familiar barely scratching the surface of what's available According to philosopher Matthew Strohl we're doing ourselves a disservice by overlooking the range of so-called difficult movies Hard to Watch is a joyous celebration of cinema that might seem boring pretentious or offensive at first glance but that offers its own distinctive rewards when we give ourselves over to it Writing with infectious enthusiasm and a refreshing lack of condescension Strohl discusses everything from the challenging late works of beloved directors like Terrence Malick and David Lynch to such visionary but divisive films as Alain Resnais's Muriel or the Time of Return Chantal Akerman's Jeanne Dielman 23 Quai du Commerce 1080 Bruxelles and Julia Ducournau's Titane evocatively showing why they're worth the time and effort to engage with and how to get the most out of them Whether you're a film lover looking to step up your game or just someone who's bored with Netflix Hard to Watch is a brisk and accessible guide to expanding your horizons

Peripheral Locations in European TV Crime Series Kim Toft Hansen, Valentina Re, 2023-10-17 This book is a comprehensive study of peripheral locations in contemporary European TV crime series. Ambitiously it covers the complete geography of Europe and offers a nuanced image of a changing dynamic and unfinished continent. The chapters include analyses of the practical creative approach to producing crime series in European peripheries and rural areas evaluating a continent marked by an internal crisis between urban and rural Europe. The study includes readings of crime series such as Shetland, Bitter Daisies, Trom, Pagan Peak and The Border but presents such representative cases within broader tendencies on the European TV market including challenges from streaming services, the influence of Nordic Noir and changes within the cognitive geography of Europe. The authors position peripheral European crime series in a complex relationship between universal appeal and local recognisability and offer a comprehensive theoretical approach to the aesthetics of peripherality. Grounded in desktop production studies the book presents an original scholarly approach to analysing European crime series from a continental point of view. Despite local differences the spatio generic orientations scrutinized in the book Nordic Noir, Mediterranean Noir, Country Noir, Eastern Noir and Brit Noir show remarkable aesthetic similarities in series from territories otherwise normally unconnected in television production. Consequently television crime series reveal a common tongue and voice for dialogue on a continent in a deepening crisis

PC World, 2009 Janae Sanders' Second Time Around
LaQuette, 2026-01-06 Smart fun and steamy Booklist A gratifying romance between kind, confident, deserving leads Kirkus Reviews A single mom gets a second chance at love with her high school sweetheart. Wary of love after divorce, Janae Sanders focuses on the best things in her life: her son, James, and her besties in the Savvy, Sexy, and Single Club. As for romance? Not today, Satan. That is until high school heartthrob Adam Henderson crashes back into her life at their 20-year reunion. Sparks fly, but just when Janae considers dating again, the new superintendent of James' school district slashes his beloved arts program. Instead of getting her groove back, Janae gets her protest on. Returning home after twenty years, Adam jumps at the chance to reacquaint himself with Janae, the one who got away. But he's nearly reached his limit, juggling a meddling father, school politics, and unbeknownst to him, Janae's ire. If he can't get the head of the PTA off his back after cutting programs that were costing the district money, his debut role as superintendent and his love life hang in the balance. When a school board meeting is called and they both realize they've been dating the enemy, Janae gives Adam two choices: restore the program or lose her. Adam proposes a third option: one weekend at his cabin to talk it all out, funding the arts and old feelings, too. When her girls cheer her on, Janae must decide if she's willing to risk it all. Armed with sass, sarcasm, and a suitcase full of emotional baggage, Janae and Adam discover that sometimes love shows up in the most infuriating and unexpectedly sexy ways.
