Because, according to management experts, self-control is a valuable skill, the educational system is trying to instill it in the children. Because this is a process of socialization, it is not limited to the classroom. It is also a process of socialization in the home. Children learn how to control their behavior by observing their parents. They learn how to control their behavior by observing their teachers. They learn how to control their behavior by observing their peers. They learn how to control their behavior by observing their environment. They learn how to control their behavior by observing their culture. They learn how to control their behavior by observing their society. They learn how to control their behavior by observing their world.
