Decentering Fashion on the Silk Roads Stefanie Mallon, Galina Mihaleva, 2024-12-30 Decentering Fashion on the Silk Roads focuses on the dynamism of fashion textile craft heritage and sustainability in Central Asia and beyond The compelling series of accounts provides a comprehensive set of insights and impressions collected from both fashion academics designers and practitioners from around the globe who journeyed through Uzbekistan and Kazakhstan and from those who live and work in this region It showcases ways in which local textile craft practices can inform the modern fashion industry into becoming more sustainable The book opens by exploring the importance of the old Silk Roads crossing through the heart of the world in Central Asia serving not only as trade routes but also allowing knowledge art and practices to be transmitted between the Orient and the Occident enabling ideas to flourish and cultural dispositions to develop from Antiquity until Modernity The unique set of chapters that follow examine and highlight the growing opportunities and lessons this region has to offer to Western fashion through local artistry and craft and points toward the urgent need to slow down and adopt responsible principles and practices The book constitutes a warm appreciation of the experiences and grateful thanks to the many communities from all different backgrounds and ages who contributed This rich travelogue is a refreshing resource for international scholars and postgraduate students studying and researching fashion theory and management in particular It will also be of interest to anthropologists cultural studies and textiles scholars Engaging the Gadfly Casey T. Sigmon,2025-06-09 In 2020 most preachers and congregations were forced into online and hybrid preaching We had to react quickly For some this adventure opened creative forms of preaching stitches duets reels and VR For others it was a season of just getting by cell phones propped up on books laptops on dining room tables We did what we could to proclaim the good news in turbulent times Five years later Sigmon invites preachers and congregations to reflect on those experiences as they consider the future of preaching She helps the reader engage the Gadfly whose buzzing signals a shift in how we understand relationships truth presence and place in this digital age Sociologists and historians argue that we are now on the brink of a shift in communication as transformative as the invention of the printing press No wonder ministry is so challenging right now Ultimately this digital age like previous ages of technological change presents problems and possibilities to the practice of preaching and so ecclesiologically the shape of the church What shapes will emerge Sigmon will empower preachers and congregations to answer that question for themselves through a new media homilecclesiology
