From Syntax to Text Libuše Dušková, 2015 From Syntax to Text: The Janus Face of Functional Sentence Perspective

Perspective Libuše Dušková, 2015-10-01 The volume presents the author's articles written in the last fifteen years dealing with the interaction between syntax functional sentence perspective information structure and text in present day English. It is divided into five parts I Syntactic Constancy II Syntax FSP Interface III FSP and Semantics IV Syntax FSP Text and V Style which reveal the two facets of functional sentence perspective syntactic structures as realization forms of the carriers of FSP functions and the connection of FSP with the level of text. The first and the last two parts frame the content of the volume in treating the role of functional sentence perspective at the syntactic and the textual levels. At the former FSP is investigated as a potential factor of syntactic divergence between English and Czech at the latter the role of FSP is examined with respect to theme development text build up and style. The points discussed in the other parts concern among others the hierarchical relationship between syntax and FSP the question of potentiality in FSP structure different realization forms of FSP structure and FSP functions general and specific questions of word order with major attention paid to the role of semantics. The

The book discusses the information structure approach as introduced by the Prague linguistic circle and elaborated in the first place by Jan Firbas one of the key persons in the field of functional sentence perspective FSP and further by Aleš Svoboda Libuše Dušková or Martin Adam. It explores the Norwegian existential construction from the syntactic and FSP points of view but also discusses selected FSP aspects in general. The theory of functional sentence perspective has been attested to multiple languages such as Czech English German Russian French Italian or Spanish. This book attempts among other things to attest its applicability to Norwegian and thus demonstrate its universal nature at least in the field of Indo-European languages. Challenges of Anglophone Language(s), Literatures and Cultures Alena Kačmárová, 2017-01-06 This book explores scholarly challenges within the fields of Anglophone language literature and culture. The section focusing on language details issues falling within two areas namely language contact and the language culture relationship and stylistic and syntactic perspectives on the English language. The literature part investigates twentieth century American English and

Australian literature dealing with both poetry and prose and discussing topics of identity gender metafiction postmodern conditions and other relevant theoretical issues in contemporary literature The culture part treats theoretical approaches in cultural studies that are vital in today s cultural context especially in Central European universities the Irish language and culture and contemporary cultural phenomena inspired by the growing ubiquity of technological intrusions into various fields of cultural production Current Trends in Textlinguistics Wolfgang U.
