Wandering Star T. J. Laverne,2018-06-29 Can star crossed lovers learn to change their stars and the fate of mankind Vincent and Leena finally found each other after searching across thousands of years spending one blissful week together in the Ice Age But fate intervened and they were ripped apart once again Now they are more desperate than ever to be reunited

But what are the chances they will find each other a second time The separation has almost destroyed Vincent and he travels through the time portal over and over in an attempt to find Leena again But his body cannot withstand the effects of traveling through it so many times and rapidly deteriorates On the brink of death he realizes that if he travels through the portal one more time it will kill him Devastated he decides to focus his efforts on saving his friends lives for Leena's sake for that hopeful day when she will find him But saving them means changing their fates and history which may very well be impossible Meanwhile Leena finds herself trapped on the mythical island of Atlantis where the endless cycle of death and rebirth all began for her friends But now that she has lost Vincent she has lost all interest in saving her friends lives Instead she strives to find another way of reaching Vincent before fate intervenes and annihilates the island and her with it

Wandering Star is the epic conclusion of the Puddle Jumper Trilogy     The Wandering Star M Widger,2024-11-04 The Wandering Star follows the journey of Captain Ava Rodriguez and her diverse crew aboard the starship Wandering Star as they explore distant galaxies uncovering the secrets of ancient civilizations and facing powerful adversaries The crew's mission takes a transformative turn when they discover the Starshaper an ancient relic with the ability to manipulate the universe's core forces As they come to grips with the artifact's unimaginable power they realize its potential to either save or destroy the galaxy Guided by the wisdom of the Nebulites and the energy bound Zenithians Ava and her crew grapple with ethical dilemmas intense space battles and treacherous alliances Each encounter shapes them challenging their perceptions of control unity and sacrifice Along the way they face betrayal within their own ranks and ultimately the personal sacrifices necessary to preserve peace Their journey leads them to the Cradle of Stars where they unlock a map of hidden relics that if combined could alter the fate of the universe itself As guardians of this knowledge the crew returns to Earth only to prepare for a final mission to secure the relics before they fall into the hands of those who would exploit them The story ends with the crew embarking once more into the unknown united by their purpose to protect the galaxy's future and maintain its delicate balance In this thrilling blend of exploration conflict and cosmic mystery The Wandering Star delves into the choices and sacrifices required to wield immense power responsibly and the resilience needed to protect the harmony of a vast interconnected universe

Wandering Star K.M. Penemue,2016 Zane and Sixia are Jacks meaning they'll take on almost any job though most of their time is spent running cargo and hunting bounties across space While on Venus they take on a job well outside the usual deliver Isais a slave to his waiting master The job comes with explicit instructions not to treat Isais like a person but it's not long before Zane finds himself enjoying Isais's company more and more Adding to the stress is the fact that someone doesn't want them completing the job and doesn't mind leaving them dead if that's what it takes But if they somehow manage to make to the delivery point Zane fears letting Isais go will prove infinitely harder than keeping everyone alive     Wandering Stars ,2019     Solitary Star Clare K.
