Walking With The Poor Walking With The Poor:

Walking with the Poor Bryant L. Myers, 2011 In this revised and updated edition of a modern classic Bryant Myers shows how Christian mission can contribute to dismantling poverty and social evil Myers demonstrates what is possible when we cease to treat the spiritual and physical domains of life as separate and unrelated A Retreat with Oscar Romero and Dorothy Day Marie Dennis, 1997 This volume invites you to make a retreat with Oscar Romero and Dorothy Day Catholics who believed passionately in the dignity of every human being and who confronted the roots of injustice and violence in the worlds where God placed them Motor Neuroscience Editor's Pick 2021 Julie Duque, 2021-08-05 Walking as Embodied Research Christian Ersten, Nick Shepherd, 2024-09-30 In recent years walking has emerged as a methodological tool and as a conceptually exciting point of departure across a range of disciplines and practices This volume explores walking as a form of embodied research practice that offers fresh perspectives on key contemporary debates and areas of interest These include the climate emergency and the debate around the Anthropocene decolonial thinking and the struggle for social justice feminist and queer walking methodologies and the notion of the infraordinary and practices of everyday life Contributions to this volume are by scholars artists and practitioners drawn from a wide range of disciplines and fields and from across the Global South and North An overarching theme of the volume is the manner in which the act of walking brings the body into presence as a material part of the research process and the forms of attentiveness that this encourages Another theme is the intimate connection between the act of walking and the act of writing As familiar landscapes change under the weight of Anthropogenic environmental change walking becomes an act of witnessing and a spur to action Rather than being a singular activity walking itself is understood as a socially economically and politically constructed and contested act This volume will serve as a source of inspiration to readers from across the arts humanities and social sciences who are interested in walking methodologies and in new and sustainable research practices We Make the Road by Walking Ann Butwell, Kathy Ogle, Scott Wright, 1998 Walking With the Poor John A.
