Torture, Psychoanalysis and Human Rights Monica Luci, 2017-04-28 Torture Psychoanalysis and Human Rights contributes to the development of that field of study called psycho social that is presently more and more committed to providing understanding of social phenomena making use of the explicative perspective of psychoanalysis The book seeks to develop a concise and integrated framework of understanding of torture as a socio political phenomenon based on psychoanalytic thinking through which different dimensions of the subject of study become more comprehensible Monica Luci argues that torture performs a covert emotional function in society In order to identify what this function might be a profile of torturous societies and the main psychological dynamics of social actors involved torturers victims and bystanders are drawn from literature Accordingly a wide ranging description of the phenomenology of torture is provided detecting an inclusive and recurring pattern of key elements Relying on psychoanalytic concepts derived from different theoretical traditions including British object relations theories American relational psychoanalysis and analytical psychology the study provides an advanced line of conceptual research shaping a model whose aim is to grasp the deep meaning of key intrapsychic interpersonal and group dynamics involved in torture Once a sufficiently coherent understanding has been reached Luci proposes using it as a groundwork tool in the human rights field to re think the best strategies of prevention and recovery from post torture psychological and social suffering The book initiates a dialogue between psychoanalysis and human rights showing that the proposed psychoanalytic understanding is a viable conceptualisation for expanding thinking of crucial issues regarding torture which might be relevant to human rights and legal doctrine such as the responsibility of perpetrators the reparation of victims and the question of truth Torture Psychoanalysis and Human Rights is the first book to build a psychoanalytic theory of torture from which psychological social and legal reflections as well as practical aspects of treatment can be mutually derived and understood It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychoanalytic psychotherapists and Jungians as well as scholars of politics social work and justice and human rights and postgraduate students studying across these fields Breaker Morant Peter FitzSimons, 2020-10-27 The epic story of the Boer War and Harry Breaker Morant drover horseman bush poet murderer or hero Most Australians have heard of the Boer War and of Harry Breaker Morant a figure who rivals Ned Kelly as an archetypal Australian folk hero But Morant was a complicated man Born in England and immigrating to Queensland in 1883 he established a reputation as a rider polo player and poet who submitted ballads to The Bulletin and counted Banjo Paterson as a friend Travelling on his wits and the goodwill of others Morant was quick to act when appeals were made for horsemen to serve in the war in South Africa He joined up first with the South Australian Mounted Rifles and then with a South African irregular unit the Bushveldt Carbineers The adventure would not go as Breaker planned In October 1901 Lieutenant Harry Morant and two other Australians Lieutenants Peter Handcock and

George Witton were arrested for the murder of Boer prisoners Morant and Handcock were court martialled and executed in February 1902 as the Boer War was in its closing stages but the debate over their convictions continues to this day With his masterful command of story Peter FitzSimons takes us to the harsh landscape of southern Africa and into the bloody action of war against an unpredictable force using modern commando tactics The truths FitzSimons uncovers about the Breaker and the part he played in the Boer War are astonishing and finally we will know if the Breaker was a hero a cad a scapegoat or a criminal British Paperbacks in Print ,1984 The Times Index ,2010 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Who's who in the West ,2001 Paperbacks in Print ,1980 3D Studio Max 2010 Euroinnova Editorial,2012 The SM 1500 Owner's Manual (Singer Motors). ,2015
