Singular Intimacies Singular Intimacies:

Singular Intimacies Danielle Ofri, MD, 2009-04-01 A finely gifted writer shares fifteen brilliantly written episodes covering the years from studenthood to the end of medical residency Oliver Sacks MD author of The Man Who Mistook His Wife for a Hat Singular Intimacies is the story of becoming a doctor by immersion at Bellevue Hospital the oldest public hospital in the country and perhaps the most legendary It is both the classic inner city hospital and a unique amalgam of history insanity beauty and intellect When Danielle Ofri enters these 250 year old doors as a tentative medical student she is immediately plunged into the teeming world of urban medicine mysterious illnesses life and death decisions patients speaking any one of a dozen languages and overworked interns devising creative strategies to cope with the feverish intensity of a big city hospital Yet the emphasis of Singular Intimacies is not so much on the arduous hours in medical training which certainly exist here but on the evolution of an instinct for healing In a hospital without the luxury of private physicians where patients lack resources both financial and societal where poverty and social strife are as much a part of the pathology as any microbe it is the medical students and interns who are thrust into the searing intimacy that is the doctor patient relationship In each memorable chapter Ofri's progress toward becoming an experienced healer introduces not just a patient in medical crisis but a human being with an intricate and compelling history Ofri learns to navigate the tangled vulnerabilities of doctor and patient not to simply battle the disease

Wayward and Homebound William Desmond, 2025-11-01 Offers an expansion of Desmond's explorations in the philosophy of the between by considering in a fresh way the distinctive features of Irish thought with reference to religion culture and poetry In Wayward and Homebound William Desmond explores the philosophy of the between in connection with traditions of Irish thought and culture especially poetry drawing upon the metaxological philosophy developed most systematically in the award winning Being and the Between Ethics and the Between and God and the Between It begins with a broad overview of this notion in connection with Irish thinking and culture by contrast with French German and Greek variations of the notion It touches on figures like John Scotus Eriugena John Toland George Berkeley and Edmund Burke as well as major poets and writers like Swift Yeats Joyce and Beckett The paradoxical twinning of being at home and not being at home and the relation of thought and exile in an Irish as well as more cosmopolitan setting are explored Desmond presents a synopsis of metaxological philosophy and how it contributes to aesthetics ethics religion and metaphysics In an extended exploration of Irish betweenings reflections are offered that move from nature to culture with four sequences of reflections on islanding naturing homing and wording Additional concerns come to light such as insular thinking the ecology of land and sea religion postcolonialism and the dialogue of poet and philosopher Life
