Sir Gardner Wilkinson And His Circle:

Sir Gardner Wilkinson and His Circle Jason Thompson, 1992-01-01 Following in the footsteps of Napoleon's army Europeans invaded Egypt in the early nineteenth century to gaze in wonder at the massive inscrutable remains of its ancient civilizations One of these travelers was a twenty four year old Englishman John Gardner Wilkinson His copious observations of ancient and modern Egyptian places artifacts and lifeways recorded in such widely read publications as Manners and Customs of the Ancient Egyptians and Handbook for Travellers in Egypt made him the leading early Victorian authority on ancient Egypt and paved the way for the scientific study of Egyptology In this first full scale biography of Wilkinson 1797-1875 Jason Thompson skillfully portrays both the man and his era He follows Wilkinson during his initial sojourn in Egypt 1821-1833 as Wilkinson immersed himself in a contemporary Egyptian lifestyle and in study of its ancient past He shows Wilkinson in his circle of friends among them Edward William Lane Robert Hay and Frederick Catherwood And he traces how Wilkinson continued to use his Egyptian material in the decades following his return to England With the rise of professional Egyptology in the middle and later nineteenth century Sir Gardner Wilkinson came to be viewed as an amateur and his popularity diminished Drawing upon recently opened sources Thompson returns Wilkinson to his rightful place within centuries of Egyptian scholarship and assesses both the vision and the limitations of his work The result is a compelling portrait of a Victorian gentleman scholar and his cultural milieu

Visualizing Egypt Paulina Banas, 2025-04-15 Illustrated publications and the role of market forces in shaping representations of Egypt at a time when European colonial interests in the region were at their peak with 80 color and black and white illustrations In the nineteenth century following Napoleon Bonaparte's 1798 campaign in Egypt new possibilities of travel and improvements in printing technology saw an emergence of publishing ventures in France and Britain dedicated to the production of albums and travel accounts featuring images of Muslim Egypt and Islamic architecture and catering to a growing European fascination with the East Visualizing Egypt analyzes the context and process of production of these highly illustrated publications from their conceptualization to the finished product and its afterlife from marketing to the sales of these books and from circulation to their reception by nineteenth century audiences By tracing the long arduous and often risky publishing journeys of the makers of these books including publishers writers and artists such as the Frenchman mile Prisse d'Avennes Paulina Banas reveals a complex terrain of changing market demands collaborations and conflicting views and the unsettled authorship of these works prompting us to think more profoundly about artistic and intellectual exchange in the world of nineteenth century Orientalist book production Visualizing Egypt considers nineteenth century book illustrations on Egypt and the Orient not merely as expressions of enduring ideology and colonial propaganda but as representations shaped by the often overlooked commercial exigencies of the growing publishing industry and the reckless competition within it
