2019 Prose Award Finalist What is the role of literary studies in an age of Twitter threads and viral news If the study of literature today is not just about turning to classic texts with age old questions neither is it a rejection of close reading or critical inquiry Through the lived experience of a humanities professor in a rapidly changing world this book explores how the careful study of literature and culture may be precisely what we need to navigate our dizzying epoch of post truth politics and ecological urgency Penguin Classics Penguin (Firm), 2005 Writing Masculinities Ben Knights, 1999-05-17 The great bulk of work on gender in fiction and literature has reflected feminist concerns and focused on women authors This book attempts to extend the contemporary preoccupation with representations of gender into the terrain of masculinity and male writing Drawing on work in both the social sciences and humanities it explores the narrative representation of masculinity in selected twentieth century fictions ranging from classic texts by Lawrence and Conrad to novels by John Fowles Graham Swift David Leavitt and others
