Singing For The Kingdom The Last Of The Homilies Monastic Wisdom Series:

Singing for the Kingdom Matthew Kelty, 2008 For almost half a century Trappist monk Matthew Kelty has delivered homilies to monks and retreatants in his unique style Visitors at his monastery have been inspired and challenged by his talks given after Compline each evening and monks have come to love and appreciate his preaching skills at Mass and in Chapter In this collection of his homilies we read his reflections on life and death the mysteries of faith the monastic life from the inside and his love of the Mass Those who have heard Father Matthew speak will welcome this new volume and those who have not will be introduced to a speaker and writer of exception talent

Come and See Brendan Freeman, 2010-04-01 Come and See is a look inside the mind of a monk The Vision of monastic life proposed here is not new it is a Vision going back to the Desert Fathers of the fourth century And yet it is new because it is rooted in a place in the soul that never grows old Come and see where I live Jesus said to the disciples who were following him He could just as well have said come and see where you live where your real life is being lived Monastic spirituality is not some esoteric or Gnostic way of perceiving reality or understanding life It is a treasure hidden in the field of your own heart it is a universal spirituality that is the common inheritance of every human being it is a search for God From the atheist to the saint there is in the heart of all creatures a desire for ultimate meaning a desire for God In this sense everyone has the heart of a monk As you read this book you will meet some of the great themes of monastic life silence solitude community life prayer You will also be helped to find your most authentic self the self Thomas Merton spoke of when he said at the center of our being is a point of nothingness a point of pure truth Nothingness emptiness absence are important aspects of our spiritual journey There is a subtheme running through ancient monasticism that conceives of the monastery as a hospital a place for healing the soul the spirit the heart The place of the heart is highlighted in these conferences and homilies as an ancient theme so relevant to the modern person

Dom Anselme Le Bail Dieudonne Dufrasne, 2010-04-01 Those who knew him above all monks will find Dom Anselme Le Bail again in these pages with warm gratitude Those who have not known him will encounter his vital and original character Both of these will be surprised and come to admire a man and a monk who has integrated a healthy humanism into a concrete ideal of his religious vocation

Words For The Journey Edith Scholl, 2009-11-01 In matters of religion and spirituality the simplest phrases can be the most misleading Or if not misleading misunderstood There is no doubt that this is true of the Cistercian tradition As Sister Edith Scholl writes in the introduction to this volume When I started reading and studying the writings of the twelfth and thirteenth century Cistercians years ago I was struck by their rich vocabulary of Latin words words rich with resonances from Scripture the liturgy and patristic and earlier monastic authors words for which no exact equivalents exist in English It seemed to me that these words could be a key to a deeper understanding of their message This study of some of the most important of them could serve as a companion to the translations being published in the Cistercian Fathers Series enabling nonspecialists to read those translations with greater understanding and appreciation In fact it might prove a fruitful source for approaching the whole monastic ethos Sister Edith Scholl has come to our rescue She has provided us with a book and a very sensible book it is The words she offers us are truly words for the journey though like any journey they are not without risk Offering our human will to God is an extraordinarily risky business but we may rest assured that our prayers will be answered From the Foreword by David N Bell

Inside The School Of Charity Trisha Day,2010-01-01 In 2003 Trisha Day spent three months living inside the enclosure of Our Lady of the Mississippi Abbey a community of twenty Cistercian nuns Although she had long been monastic associate she was startled by the unexpected challenges and insights that emerged as the weeks went by and began a process of profound reflection on her experience Now drawing on her journals and reflections and on her own experience as a professional woman wife daughter and mother she delves into the questions of how the centuries old wisdom of monastic life can challenge inspire and guide those living outside the monastery Organized around topics such as prayer community and the vows each of Day s reflections begins with memories of her monastic experience and then presents a perceptive and often humorous critique of the contrasting values of our present culture For each topic she chronicles with honesty and humility her subsequent struggles to apply back home the alternative approaches learned from the sisters she lived with and offers a wealth of practical suggestions Filled with stories from her own life and fascinating details of daily life in the monastery her book is sure to strike a spark with all those seeking to live in a fully human and Christ centered way

John Paul II's Contribution to Catholic Bioethics Christopher Tollefson,2008-01-18 Any list of the most influential figures of the second half of the twentieth century would arguably have to begin with the name of Pope John Paul II From 1978 when he was inaugurated to the present over a quarter of a century later the Pope has been a dominant force in the world both within the Catholic and Christian Church and in the larger international community Among the areas in which the Pope has been of signal importance to contemporary discussion argument and policy has been the field of bioethics This collection brings together for the first time in an accessible and readable form a summary and assessment of John Paul II s contribution to bioethical issues and theories It includes discussion of the Pope s views on the dignity of the person and the sanctity of human life and the application of these views to various difficulties in medical ethics such as abortion and embryo research the right to health care and the problem of suffering Throughout attention is paid to the way in which the Pope stands as a recognizably authentic voice for the Catholic faith in the medical arena

Select Notes on the International Sunday School Lessons ... ,1891 Gethsemani Homilies Matthew Kelty,2010-11-01 Matthew Kelty a native of Boston has been a monk of Gethsemani since 1960 Before that he served as an active priest in the Society of the Divine Word both in the States and in Papua New Guinea His previous books include Flute Solo Sheed Andrews McMeel Sermons in the Monastery Call of the Wild Geese and Singing for the Kingdom Cistercian Publications He was a novice of Thomas Merton who later chose him as his confessor After some years at Gethsemani he became a hermit for ten years in Papua New Guinea After returning to the monastery he became chaplain to the guests and retreatants to whom he gave a spiritual conference each evening after Compline Gethsemani Homilies Revised and Enlarged Edition was first published by the Franciscan Press in Quincy Illinois but after a short time the Press closed down and the manuscript was returned to Gethsemani The editor William O Paulsell has revised and enlarged the edition that we have here
