Sipri Yearbook 2008 Armaments Disarmament And International Security Sipri Yearbook Series:

SIPRI Yearbook 2008 Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 2008 The 39th edition of the SIPRI Yearbook analyses developments in 2007 in Security and conflicts Military spending and armaments Non proliferation arms control and disarmament The SIPRI Yearbook contains extensive annexes on the implementation of arms control and disarmament agreements and a chronology of events during the year in the area of security and arms control Power, Perception and Foreign Policymaking Scott Brown, 2017-11-13 This book examines the changing dynamics of power in the international arena since the end of the Cold War Brown engages in analysis of how the United States and the European Union have responded to the so called rise of China through an examination of how policymakers perceptions of China have changed over time and influenced their policy choices This study undertakes rigorous analysis of how these perceptions have evolved between 1989 and 2009 2016 offering a comparative perspective on the similarities and differences between the policy discourse and behaviour within these two Western powers Brown argues that China s rise is a contested notion with varied perceptions of how the implications of China s ascendancy have shaped policy preferences in ways that are inconsistent with concerns over the threat of an impending power transition Combining concepts and methods derived from IR and FPA the book examines the linkages between great power politics and policymakers competing interpretations of key international actors and their influence upon foreign policies The main objective of the study is to illuminate the different ways in which the US and the EU have responded to the rise of China through a close analysis of their decision making processes and outcomes across a series of key encounters and events including the transatlantic debate over the EU s proposal to lift its China arms embargo 2003 2005 Undertaking qualitative analysis of the development of American and European policymakers perceptions of China this book will be of interest to graduates and scholars of post Cold War international politics Foreign Policy Analysis policymaking US China relations and EU China relations The Marketing of War in the Age of Neo-Militarism Kostas Gouliamos, Christos Kassimeris, 2013-05-13 The post 9 11 era and the overall impact of international terrorism have generated much debate regarding the role of military apparatus in modern society This book assesses the inherent meaning of the militarization from a critical interdisciplinary perspective Against the background of democracy and capitalism The Marketing of War in the Age of Neo Militarism challenges prevailing accounts of the military industrial complex as it explores significant interrelated themes denoting the accelerating process of militarization of society Designed to address pressing socio political phenomena this book is the first of its genre contesting conventional wisdom about the perceived link between war and the military industrial complex It is unique not merely because of its approach but also for its thorough analysis of deeply affected social institutions and processes such as education popular culture geopolitics military expenditure space and the environment Contributing authors advance the discussion by exposing factual information demonstrating the nature and scope of society s militarization Their analysis is also broadened to encompass key concepts and diverse aspects of the subject matter that provoke a lively debate The book offers compelling arguments that will be indispensable to scholars students professionals and policy and decision makers with an interest in social and political sciences as well as in other related fields      The Global Arms Trade Andrew T. H. Tan,2014-05-22 The Global Arms Trade is a timely comprehensive and in depth study of this topic a phenomenon which has continued to flourish despite the end of the Cold War and the preoccupation with global terrorism after 11 September 2001 It provides a clear description and analysis of the demand for and supply of modern weapons systems and assess key issues of concern This book will be especially useful to scholars policy analysts those in the arms industry defence professionals students of international relations and security studies media professionals government officials and those generally interested in the arms trade

Private Armed Forces and Global Security Juan Carlos Ortiz,2010-03-11 Through an array of theoretical approaches and empirical material this comprehensive and accessible volume surveys private armed forces and directly challenges conventional stereotypes of security contractors Private Armed Forces and Global Security A Guide to the Issues is the first book to provide a comprehensive yet accessible survey of the private military groups involved in conflicts worldwide Organized around four themes it covers the history of private military forces since 1600 the main contemporary actors and their defining characteristics the environments in which private armed forces operate and provides an analysis of the logic behind privatizing security This book goes beyond conventional knowledge offering both a theoretical approach and a new practical perspective to advance the understanding of the ongoing climate of global instability and relevant players within it Numerous examples help the reader grasp the full range of real world challenges and conceptual facets surrounding this fascinating yet highly polarizing topic      Realism versus Global Arms Control and Disarmament Carmen Chas,2025-07-15

This incisive book explores the limits of international law through arms control and disarmament treaties Carmen Chas critically engages with literature on disarmament and classical realist analysis bridging the divide between international law and international relations scholarship      The Europa World Year Book 2008 Joanne Maher,2008-06-24 First published in 2008 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      SIPRI Yearbook 2015 Stockholm International Peace Research Institute,2015-10 The 46th edition of the SIPRI Yearbook analyses developments in 2014 in security and conflicts military spending and armaments non proliferation arms control and disarmament      OECD Journal on
