The Cambridge Companion to American Realism and Naturalism Donald Pizer, 1995-06-30 This Companion examines a number of issues related to the terms realism and naturalism The introduction seeks both to discuss the problems in the use of these two terms in relation to late nineteenth century fiction and to describe the history of previous efforts to make the terms expressive of American writing of this period The Companion includes ten essays which fall into four categories essays on the historical context of realism and naturalism by Louis Budd and Richard Lehan essays on critical approaches to the movements since the early 1970s by Michael Anesko essays on the efforts to expand the canon of realism and naturalism by Elizabeth Ammons and a full scale discussion of ten major texts from W D Howell's The Rise of Silas Lapham to Jack London's The Call of the Wild by John W Crowley Tom Quirk J C Levenson Blanche Gelfant Barbara Hochman and Jacqueline Tavernier Courbin

The Employment of English Michael Bérubé, 1998 Although few taxpayers and legislators care whether the nation's English professors are doing justice to identifying the beautiful and the sublime conversely the image of English departments plays a major role in determining public attitudes toward colleges and college faculty Investigating the ramifications of current debates this book provides the clearest and most comprehensive account of this controversy to date

The Sentimental Touch Aaron Ritzenberg, 2012-12-24 Between 1850 and 1940 with the rise of managerial capitalism in the United States the most powerful businesses ceased to be family owned instead becoming sprawling organizations controlled by complex bureaucracies Sentimental literature work written specifically to convey and inspire deep feeling does not seem to fit with a swiftly bureaucratizing society Surprisingly though sentimental language persisted in American literature even as a culture of managed systems threatened to obscure the power of individual affect The Sentimental Touch explores the strange enduring power of sentimental language in the face of a rapidly changing culture Analyzing novels by Harriet Beecher Stowe Mark Twain Sherwood Anderson and Nathanael West the book demonstrates that sentimental language changes but remains powerful even in works by authors who self consciously write against the sentimental tradition Sentimental language has an afterlife enduring in American literature long after authors and critics declared it dead insisting that human feeling can resist a mechanizing culture and embodying paradoxically the way that literary conventions themselves become mechanical and systematic

Richard Ford and the Fiction of Masculinities Josep M. Armengol, 2010 Richard Ford and the Fiction of Masculinities demonstrates how contemporary U S novelist Richard Ford winner of the Pulitzer Prize for literature rewrites gender and in particular masculinity from highly subversive and innovative perspectives Josep M Armengol analyzes the construction as well as the deconstruction of masculinity in all of Ford s major fictional texts to date ranging from A Piece of My Heart to The Sportswriter to The Lay of the Land Given its simultaneous critique of traditional masculinity and its depiction of alternative models of being a man Ford s fiction is shown to be particularly interesting from a men s studies perspective which aims not only to undermine patriarchal masculinity but also to look for new non hierarchical and more egalitarian models of being a man in contemporary U S culture and literature By framing Ford s contemporary representations of masculinity within a more general context of American literature this book reveals how his texts continue along a trajectory of earlier American fiction while they also re examine masculinity in new more complex ways Richard Ford and the Fiction of Masculinities contributes to the much needed revision of men and masculinities in U S literature and especially Richard Ford s fiction where constructions of gender and masculinity remain paradoxically enough largely unexplored

Narrative Machine Zena Meadowsong, 2018-11-20 Narrative Machine The Naturalist Modernist and Postmodernist Novel advances a new history of the novel identifying a crucial link between narrative innovation and the historical process of mechanization In the late nineteenth century the novel grapples with a new and increasingly acute problem In its attempt to represent the colossal power of modern machinery the steam driven machines of the Industrial Revolution the electrical machines of the modern city and the atomic and digital machines developed after the Second World War it encounters the limitations of traditional representative strategies Beginning in the naturalist novel the machine is typically portrayed as a mythic monster and though that monster represents a potentially horrific reality the superhuman power of mechanization it also disrupts the documentary objectives of narrative realism the dominant mode of nineteenth century fiction The mechanical monster realistic and yet at odds with traditional realist strategies tears the form of the novel apart In doing so it unleashes a series of innovations that disclose critique and contest the force of mechanization the innovations associated with literary naturalism modernism and postmodernism
