Squires in the Slums Nigel Scotland,2007-06-27 Settlements were a distinctive aspect of late Victorian church life in which individual philanthropic Christians were encouraged to live and work in communities amongst the poor and set an example for the underprivileged through their own actions Often overlooked by historians settlements are of great value in understanding the values and culture of the 19th century Settlement missions were first conceived when Samuel Barnett the incumbent of St Jude s Whitechapel in the East End of London sought to introduce them as a major aspect of Victorian church life Barnett argued that settlers should be incorporated into London communities that suffered from squalor and poverty to live and work alongside the poor to demonstrate their Christian faith and attempt to enhance social conditions from the inside His first recruits were Oxford undergraduates and when Toynbee Hall was founded in Oxford in 1884 his radical vision of adapting Christian morality towards tackling social deprivation had begun By the end of the Victorian era more than fifty similar institutions had been created Whilst few settlements lasted beyond the Victorian period by injecting Christian ethics into trade unions local government and the community they had a huge impact which is still felt in the way these organisations operate today Leisure, Voluntary Action and Social Change in Britain, 1880-1939 Robert Snape,2018-04-05 In the final decades of the nineteenth century modernizing interpretations of leisure became of interest to social policy makers and cultural critics producing a discourse of leisure and voluntarism that flourished until the Second World War The free time of British citizens was increasingly seen as a sphere of social citizenship and community building Through major social thinkers including William Morris Thomas Hill Green Bernard Bosanquet and John Hobson leisure and voluntarism were theorized in terms of the good society In post First World War social reconstruction these writers remained influential as leisure became a field of social service directed towards a new society and working through voluntary association in civic societies settlements new estate community centres village halls and church based communities This volume documents the parallel cultural shift from charitable philanthropy to social service and from rational recreation to leisure teasing out intellectual influences which included social idealism liberalism and socialism Leisure Robert Snape claims has been a central and under recognized organizing force in British communities Leisure Voluntary Action and Social Change in Britain 1880 1939 marks a much needed addition to the historiography of leisure and an antidote to the widely misunderstood implications of leisure to social policy today Culture, Philanthropy and the Poor in Late-Victorian London Geoffrey A. C. Ginn, 2017-04-21 In refreshing our understanding of this obscure but eloquent activism Ginn approaches cultural philanthropy not simply as a project of class self interest nor as fanciful missionary aestheticism Rather he shows how liberal aspirations towards adult education and civic community can be traced in a number of centres of moralising voluntary effort Concentrating on Toynbee Hall in Whitechapel the People s Palace in Mile End Red Cross Hall in Southwark and the Bermondsey Settlement the discussion identifies the common impulses animating practical reformers across these settings Ginn shows how these were shaped by a distinctive diagnosis of urban deprivation and anomie Monthly Bulletin of Books Added to the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library, 1898 Annual Report for the Year ... John Crerar Library, 1923 A List of Books on Social Reform in the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library, 1898 Annual Report John Crerar Library, 1926 The Commons John Palmer Gavit, Graham Taylor, 1896 Palmer's Index to "The Times" Newspaper , 1905 Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years ... British Museum, 1891 Transactions Commonwealth Club of California, 1920 A Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years 1880-[95] British Museum.
