Ageism in Youth Studies Gayle Kimball, 2017-05-11 Ageism is prevalent in a great deal of current scholarship in the social sciences as scholars fault youth for being delinquent or politically apathetic Researchers ignore young people's actual voices despite their leadership in recent global uprisings some of which unseated entrenched dictators Neoliberalism must be exposed in its focus on youth sub cultures and styles rather than economic barriers caused by growing inequality and rising youth unemployment rates

Ageism in Youth Studies also discusses the debate about Generation We or Me and if Millennials are narcissistic Resources about global youth studies are included along with the results of the author's surveys and interviews with over 4 000 young people from 88 countries

Feature Films in English Language Teaching Britta Viebrock, 2016-07-11 Feature Films in English Language Teaching deals with the use of motion pictures in the advanced EFL English as a foreign language classroom It provides a general introduction to film literacy and explains the rationale methods and objectives of working with feature films In addition the book contains in depth considerations on sixteen selected films which are grouped regionally Australia New Zealand South Africa USA Great Britain Each chapter describes the topical focus of the film and its central theme and provides background information on social historical political and geographical issues A profound analysis of selected scenes lays the foundation for considerations on the teaching potential of the film In a download section the chapters are complemented with ready to use teaching materials on film specific aspects narrative dramatic and cinematographic dimensions which are organised as pre while post viewing activities A glossary on technical terms for film analysis completes the volume

Great Films and how to Teach Them William V. Costanzo, 2004 Costanzo combines a love of film viewing with the practical side of expressing film study to students including the art of transforming fiction into film history and business of the industry and film genres He also includes study guides for fourteen films including To Kill a Mockingbird Romeo and Juliet Mississippi Masala Schindler's List The Shawshank Redemption Run Lola Run The Matrix and Bend It Like Beckham

Teaching and Learning Outside the Box Kieran Egan,Maureen Stout,Keiichi Takaya,2007-04-29 Everyone knows that educational success is much more likely when students' imaginations and emotions are caught up in learning While we have a rich educational literature about holding students' interest we do not have very much sustained work on what the imagination is how it works in learning or how it may be inspired in the classroom Addressing the whole curriculum this book provides insights into each of those areas central to educational success Engaging the imagination is sometimes seen in opposition to preparing students for testing but scoring well on tests and being imaginatively active in learning are not mutually exclusive When students' imaginations are engaged in learning their educational performance will improve by any test or measure This book offers a new understanding of how knowledge grows in the mind and how our imagination works and changes during our lifetime Knowledgeable authors describe innovative teaching methods based on these insights which offer new ways of planning and teaching
