Sublimation Inquiries Into Theoretical Psychoanalysis:

Sublimation Hans W. Loewald, 1988 In psychoanalytic theory sublimation the process of expressing instinctual impulses in constructive socially acceptable forms is a central yet poorly understood psychic process The eminent psychoanalyst Hans W Loewald here offers a provocative new examination of sublimation After reviewing the writings of Freud Fenichel Hartmann Winnicott and Kris on sublimation Dr Loewald presents his own ideas In his attempt to disentangle sublimation from other concepts with which it is often confused he examines it within three contexts as reconciliation as defense and as symbolic expression He establishes a strong case for the undifferentiated quality of early life a time of unselfconscious unity prior to awareness of self or other Sublimation according to Dr Loewald is an act of instinctual expression derived from this early pre differentiated period Dr Loewald s inquiry leads to a reexamination and revision of basic psychoanalytic theory relating to instincts symbolism motivation ego development and various emotional processes This is a new and highly thought provoking approach to an understanding of the phenomena of sublimation A Scott Dowling M D Case Western Reserve University This book is not only a profound consideration of the nature of sublimation a subject of excruciating importance for humans it is a summarizing statement encompassing the whole work of a great psychoanalyst Vann Spruiell M D Tulane University
