The August Sleepwalker:

The August Sleepwalker Beidao, 1990 Among the most gifted and controversial writers to emerge from the massive upheavals in modern China Bei Dao both reflects and criticizes the conflicts of the Cultural Revolution of the late sixties and seventies The August Sleepwalker: Poetry Bei Dao, 1988 A Study Guide for Bei Dao's "All" Gale, Cengage

Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Bei Dao's All excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Poetry for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Poetry for Students for all of your research needs Imagining Modern Poetry Nikky Lin, 2025-01-17 This book offers an in-depth discussion of the evolution of modernist poetry in Taiwan with a focus on periods preceding and following World War II and contextualizes the movement within the broader frameworks of Western Japanese and Chinese modernism Through a comparative dialectical approach each chapter introduces individual poets and their works to explore key modernist themes such as intellectualism fudo pure poetry translinguistic practice exile Cold War cultural ideology and irony Despite its significance Taiwan's modern poetry has received inadequate scholarly attention within Sinophone language and literature studies this work aims to address the gap in the literature offering fresh perspectives and innovative methodological and theoretical frameworks for those interested in Taiwan's modernist poetic tradition

《现代诗选》, 2009 A selection from the lifework of the internationally renowned poet Bei Dao who is like reading Chekhov or Turgenev reflected in a porcelain bowl The Times London Occidentalism Xiaomei Chen, 2002 This revised and expanded edition of the first comprehensive study of Occidentalism in post Mao China includes a new preface foreword and chapter on Chinese diaspora writings in the Chinese language Xiaomei Chen offers an insightful account of the unremittingly favorable depiction of Western culture and its negative characterization of Chinese culture in post Mao China since 1978 She examines the cultural and political interrelationship between the East and West from a vantage point more complex than that accommodated by most current theories of Western imperialism and colonialism Going beyond Edward Said's construction in Orientalism of cross cultural appropriations as a defining facet of Western imperialism Chen argues that the appropriation of Western discourse what she calls Occidentalism can actually have a politically and ideologically liberating effect on contemporary non-Western culture She maintains that simplistic allegations of Orientalism frequently found in current critical discourses seriously underestimate the complexities of intercultural and multicultural relationships Using China as the focus of her analysis Chen examines a variety of cultural media from Shakespearean drama to modernist poetry to contemporary Chinese television and popular fiction She thus places sinology in the general context of Western theoretical discourses such as Eurocentrism postcolonialism nationalism modernism feminism and literary hermeneutics showing that it has a vital role to play in the study of Orient and Occident and their now unavoidable symbiotic relationship Occidentalism presents a new model of comparative literary and cultural studies that reenvisiones cross cultural appropriation It will be

indispensable to future discussions of Orientalism Occidentalism and postcolonialism as well as subaltern studies Asian studies comparative literature cultural studies and non Western drama Do Not Say We Have Nothing Madeleine Thien, 2016-10-11 Winner of the Scotiabank Giller Prize and the Governor General's Literary Award Finalist for the Booker Prize and the Baileys Women's Prize for Fiction A powerfully expansive novel Thien writes with the mastery of a conductor New York Times Book Review In a single year my father left us twice The first time to end his marriage and the second when he took his own life I was ten years old Master storyteller Madeleine Thien takes us inside an extended family in China showing us the lives of two successive generations those who lived through Mao's Cultural Revolution and their children who became the students protesting in Tiananmen Square At the center of this epic story are two young women Marie and Ai Ming Through their relationship Marie strives to piece together the tale of her fractured family in present day Vancouver seeking answers in the fragile layers of their collective story Her quest will unveil how Kai her enigmatic father a talented pianist and Ai Ming's father the shy and brilliant composer Sparrow along with the violin prodigy Zhuli were forced to reimagine their artistic and private selves during China's political campaigns and how their fates reverberate through the years with lasting consequences With maturity and sophistication humor and beauty Thien has crafted a novel that is at once intimate and grandly political rooted in the details of life inside China yet transcendent in its universality Recentring Asia Jacob Edmond, Henry Johnson, Jacqueline Leckie, 2011-07-27 These essays argue that recentring Asia necessitates a revision not only of notions of Asia but also of the centre itself On the one hand recentring Asia asserts the centrality of overlooked Asian histories encounters and identities to world history culture and geopolitics On the other hand recentring provides a way to address and rethink the concept of the centre a term critical to Asian Studies area studies and more broadly to the study of globalization postcolonialism diaspora modernism and modernity Drawing on new approaches in these fields Recentring Asia asks the reader to rethink the centre not as a single site towards which all is oriented but as a zone of encounter exchange and contestation The Spaces of Hope Peter Jay, 1998 Anvil's 30th Anniversary anthology showing the full diversity and consistent high quality of the press Renditions, 1983 The Publishers Weekly, 1945-03 The Paths that Lead Nowhere Kwai-Cheung Lo, 1996 The Poetry Review, 1989 World Authors, 1985-1990 Vineta Colby, 1995 Representing a broad range of ethnic diversity these in depth profiles present fascinating accounts of lives and careers the circumstances under which works were produced and their literary significance Each profile also includes critical evaluation a list of the author's principal works with date first published a list of major critical works and a portrait or photograph where available Annual Report and Accounts Arts Council of Great Britain, 1988 Modern Chinese Literature, 1996 River City, 1996 Reports of the President and the Treasurer - John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, 1999 Includes biographies of fellows appointed reappointments publications musical compositions academic appointments and index of fellows International Quarterly, 1993 China Research
