translation shifts that occur at different levels Drawing on the Seven Reports to the National Congresses of the Communist Party of China CPC 1992 2022 as a corpus Du explores the official translators agency in representing the image of China as well as the recontextualization of the translated discourse of the Report to the National Congress of the CPC in the international media She delves into the balance between discourse ideology and political and social function and argues that at their essence discourse changes by the translator represent a change of ideology and the acquisition of discourse power is the manifestation of ideological power Striking the balance between theoretical and empirical studies this book reveals the role of discourse in building the media view of China corroborating the interrelationship between discourse and ideology The book will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students of discourse analysis corpus linguistics and media studies
