Trump The Best Golf Advice I Ever Received:

The Best Golf Advice I Ever Received Donald Trump,2005 The real estate mogul and golfing enthusiast shares golf tips from some of the world's top golf professionals including how to think your game better when to swing hard and how to foster a love of the game that will transcend setbacks Trump: The Best Golf Advice I Ever Received Donald J.

Trump,2005-05-03 The host and coproducer of the megahit reality show The Apprentice presents a unique collection of golf advice. From Palmer and Player Mickelson and Vijay to Pat Boone, Stone Phillips and even Yogi Berra these players, teachers, businesspeople and celebrities will help you play better and score lower. Everyone who plays golf has that little nugget of information they turn to on the course. But never before has such an array of golfing advice been pulled together in one place. Donald Trump himself an avid and very good golfer asked his friends, colleagues and playing companions to offer thoughts on everything from the mental game to the swing to putting to playing golf the right way. And golfers being what they are, none could resist sharing words of wisdom. So here we find Vijay Singh telling us about playing simply: You don't need to get your golf swing by going through video cameras and stuff like that. Just kind of go out there and find yourself. Baseball Hall of Famer Ozzie Smith talks about not overswinging. Just learn to allow the club to do what it's supposed to do because the ball is sitting still. Actor Michael Douglas has a specific routine to slow his tempo: he says his wife's name and doesn't even think of starting to bring the club down until he gets to Jones. Taken together these more than two hundred entries create a unique handbook covering every aspect of the game and ranging from the lighthearted to the deadly serious. Donald Trump's book of advice is certain to take its place next to Harvey Penick's Little Red Book as the ultimate in golf instruction. Catch

Qualified Jamin Soderstrom, 2011-09-30. There is no more important decision an American voter can make than selecting who will become the next president of the United States and voters should not be forced to guess whether a candidate is qualified to become president. In Qualified author Jamin Soderstrom proposes a resume challenge that could revolutionize the election system and help to bring the presidential hiring process into the twenty first century. Qualified presents a tool developed by Soderstrom to help voters compare presidential candidates with each other and with past presidents. This resume based approach focuses on the candidates experiences and abilities and evaluates legislative, executive, military, foreign and private experience, education and intellect and writing and public speaking ability. It ensures that future presidents will be leaders qualified by constitutional, historical and practical standards. A blend of analysis and insight, Qualified seeks to provide information to voters to help ensure the public elects presidents who have the experience, ability and temperament to rise above the fray and become historically successful. The innovative resume challenge will help shed light on which candidates in 2012 meet the QUALIFIED THRESHOLD for presidential success.
