To The Work! To The Work! Exhortations to Christians Dwight L. Moody,2020-02-21 Dwight L Moody in full Dwight Lyman Moody born February 5 1837 East Northfield Massachusetts U S died December 22 1899 Northfield Massachusetts prominent American evangelist who set the pattern for later evangelism in large cities Moody left his mother s farm at age 17 to work in Boston and there was converted from Unitarianism to evangelicalism In 1856 he moved to Chicago and prospered as a shoe salesman but in 1860 gave up business for missionary work He worked with the Young Men's Christian Association YMCA 1861-73 was president of the Chicago YMCA founded the Moody Church and engaged in slum mission work. In 1870 he met Ira D. Sankey a hymn writer and with him became noted for contributing to the growth of the gospel hymn. They made extended evangelical tours in Great Britain 1873-75 1881-84. Moody shunned divisive sectarian doctrines deplored higher criticism of the Bible the Social Gospel movement and the theory of evolution. Instead he colourfully and intensely preached the old fashioned gospel emphasizing a literal interpretation of the Bible and looking toward the premillennial Second Coming. Moody's mass revivals were financed by prominent businessmen who believed he would alleviate the hardships of the poor. Moody himself ardently supported various charities but felt that social problems could be solved only by the divine regeneration of individuals. As well as conducting revivals he directed annual Bible conferences at Northfield Massachusetts where he founded a seminary for girls in 1879. In 1889 he founded the Chicago Bible Institute now the Moody Bible Institute. Secret Power D. L.

Moody, 2016-09-16 One man may have zeal without knowledge while another may have knowledge without zeal. If I could have only the one I believe I should choose the first but with an open Bible no one need be without knowledge of God's will and purpose and the object of this book is to help others to know the source of true power that both their zeal and their knowledge may be of increased service in the Master's work. Paul says all Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable but I believe one portion and that the subject of this book has been too much overlooked as though it were not practical and the result is lack of power in testimony and work. If we would work not as one that beateth the air but to some definite purpose we must have this power from on high. Without this power our work will be drudgery. With it it becomes a joyful task a refreshing service. May God make this book a blessing to many. This is my prayer. D. L. MOODY Northfield Mass. May 1st 1881.
