Setting the Stage

Background

Tell students that this play is based on the true story of the Titanic, a luxury liner that sank in the Atlantic Ocean in 1912. The Titanic began its maiden voyage from the port of Southampton, in England, on April 10. There were bad weather nights from the beginning. Just after its launch, for example, the Titanic nearly crashed into another ship. After stopping at ports in France and Ireland, it made its way toward New York City. On the night of April 14, other ships sent the Titanic warnings about ice, but these warnings were ignored. There was a shortage of lookouts on board, so the lookouts could only peer into the darkness ahead. Shortly before midnight, the Titanic rammed into an iceberg. The Carpathia received an SOS signal from the Titanic, and headed for the site full steam ahead. It was nearly 60 miles away, however, and time was of the essence. In the end, nearly two-thirds of the Titanic's crew and passengers perished at sea.

Staging

Students may use caps and whistles as props for the crew of the Titanic and the Carpathia.

Encore

Students may enjoy watching movie versions of this historical disaster, including the black-and-white classic A Night to Remember.

Vocabulary

Introduce and discuss the following words before reading the script. Tell students that the following terms are all related to travel at sea. Have students look up the definitions and then use these words in sentences.

bow the front section of a boat or ship latitude the distance north or south of the equator, measured in degrees longitude the distance east or west of the prime meridian, measured in degrees
