of 100 luminous player profiles the best sports newsroom on the planet paints vivid portraits of the game's most compelling characters. There's George Mikan who was cut from his high school team because he wore glasses then went on to become the fledgling NBA's first transcendent star. Gary Payton, called The Glove for his skintight defense who talked as much trash to his teammates as he did to his opponents on the court. Dennis Rodman who started playing basketball at age 20 and in a few short years went from working as a janitor at the airport to being one of the strangest superstars that sport has ever known. Allen Iverson who drew inspiration from hip hop for his inimitable style and swagger on and off the court. Kareem Abdul Jabbar who was so dominant in the paint that they changed the rules and Steph Curry who was so dominant outside it that he seemed to expand the very boundaries of the court. The Basketball 100 edited by award winning reporters David Aldridge and John Hollinger also answers the game's toughest most important questions. How should we weight championship rings versus statistical profiles versus the eye test. Were the great players of yesteryear like Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell propelled by the inferior athleticism of their competition or would they have been transcendent in any era. And of course who's the GOAT MJ or LeBron. Speaking of GOATs for the book Hollinger inventor of the statistical metric PER has created a new benchmark GOAT Points. Wonderfully written authoritative and full of joy The Basketball 100 is a fitting tribute to the greatest sport in the world.

America's Top Internships, 1999 Mark Oldman, Samer Hamadeh, 1998. What do President Clinton Today show anchor Katie Couric and N Y Knicks star Patrick Ewing have in common? They all had internships. An internship can put you on the path to success, point you in a new career direction, help you discover your talents and give you some experience. A successful internship can also help assure you of gainful employment after you finish high school, college or grad school. The competition for good internships is fierce but this book gives you a competitive edge. America's Top Internships puts you on the inside track for the best opportunities in law, the environment, advertising, sports, computers, journalism, music, health care, publishing, finance, education, television, modeling, even beer production and more. Every entry includes In depth candid critiques of the internship and its daily responsibilities. Feedback from actual interns. Advice on how to land the internship of your choice. Crucial information on important deadlines and the materials required in order to complete an excellent application. And of course our patented Busywork Meter which tells you the truth about how much mind numbing menial labor you will be subjected to.

The First and Only Guide to the Best Internships Mark Oldman, Sam Hamadeh, 1995-08-15. Ten years ago only one student in 36 did an internship during the school year; now that figure is one in five. In today's competitive job market students know that an internship on your resume has practically become a necessity. This guide presents over 13 000 rewarding opportunities in a broad range of fields including law, sports, music, finance, fashion, education and health care.

The Best 106 Internships Mark Oldman, 2000. Lists more than 20 000 internship possibilities for high school and college students as well as for those interested in a new career.
