Who Can You Trust? Rachel Botsman, 2017-11-14 If you can't trust those in charge who can you trust From government to business banks to media trust in institutions is at an all time low But this isn't the age of distrust far from it In this revolutionary book world renowned trust expert Rachel Botsman reveals that we are at the tipping point of one of the biggest social transformations in human history with fundamental consequences for everyone A new world order is emerging we might have lost faith in institutions and leaders but millions of people rent their homes to total strangers exchange digital currencies or find themselves trusting a bot This is the age of distributed trust a paradigm shift driven by innovative technologies that are rewriting the rules of an all too human relationship If we are to benefit from this radical shift we must understand the mechanics of how trust is built managed lost and repaired in the digital age In the first book to explain this new world Botsman provides a detailed map of this uncharted landscape and explores what's next for humanity Teaching for Learning Claire Howell Major, Michael S. Harris, Todd D. Zakrajsek, 2015-08-27 Despite a growing body of research on teaching methods instructors lack a comprehensive resource that highlights and synthesizes proven approaches Teaching for Learning fills that gap Each of the one hundred and one entries describes an approach and lists its essential features and elements demonstrates how that approach has been used in education including specific examples from different disciplines reviews findings from the research literature describes techniques to improve effectiveness Teaching for Learning provides instructors with a resource grounded in the academic knowledge base written in an easily accessible engaging and practical style Milton's Cambridge Latin John K.
