De Gruyter Handbook of Media Technology and Innovation Richard A. Gershon,2025-01-27 The De Gruyter Handbook of Media Technology and Innovation brings together scholars from around the world to provide key insights on emerging technology trends and issues related to the fields of media management information technology product design planning and digital lifestyle This handbook is about the power of good ideas It s about those business enterprises government planners educators and entrepreneurs that have harnessed the power of good ideas to become real difference makers in the world we live in Keeping pace with fast paced technology change requires ongoing assessment and reassessment of the media management and technology fields to address important questions and emerging issues A major premise of this book is that given the complex and ever changing state of media technology we have a responsibility and obligation to engage in a broader interdisciplinary dialogue whose purpose is to understand the current and future state of media technology and innovation as well as to appreciate the social impact that such technologies have on business education and the general public Forecasting the future as any weatherperson or stock broker can tell you is a risky business But in this book we use the phrase the creative next step as a way to talk about the future and what we can expect in terms of the opportunities and challenges going forward     Transnational Streaming Television Joseph Straubhaar, Swapnil Rai, Melissa Santillana, Silvia Dalben, 2025-09-29 Examining the impact of streaming on the global production and flow of television and film this book provides an innovative theoretical framework to conceptualize how asymmetric dynamics of power play out in the era of global streaming This book analyses Netflix and Amazon Prime Video two tech based digital native streamers and compares them to Disney and HBO Max Warner Bros Discovery two legacy Hollywood studios with cable TV and broadcasting operations now pursuing global streaming The book compares their different models of operation and specifically explores how these four streamers particularly Netflix are co producing and commissioning television programs and films in an increasing number of countries It also examines how this trend is creating new opportunities for independent producers and soft power for the producing nations This book further considers the direct algorithmic targeting of individuals by their genre preferences across boundaries of culture language and nation boundaries that previously protected national and regional television markets creating a new flow of data colonialism At a more local level the book also examines some of the national and regional streaming platforms emerging in some of the key players in the Global South Brazil India and Mexico This is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in media studies global media and global television studies
