Social Reproduction Social Reproduction:

Social Reproduction Theory Tithi Bhattacharya, 2017-10-20 This groundbreaking collection explores the profound power of Social Reproduction Theory to deepen our understanding of everyday life under capitalism. While many Marxists tend to focus on the productive economy, this book focuses on issues such as child care, health care, education, family life, and the roles of gender, race, and sexuality, all of which are central to understanding the relationship between economic exploitation and social oppression. In this book, leading writers such as Lise Vogel, Nancy Fraser, David McNally, and Susan Ferguson reveal the ways in which daily and generational reproductive labour found in households, schools, hospitals, and prisons also sustains the drive for accumulation. Presenting a more sophisticated alternative to intersectionality, these essays provide ideas which have important strategic implications for anti-capitalists, anti-racists, and feminists attempting to find a path through the seemingly ever more complex world we live in. Social Reproduction Theory and the Socialist Horizon

Aaron Jaffe, 2020 How do we integrate the theoretical underpinnings of Social Reproduction Theory (SRT) into our understanding of the social harms inflicted upon us? How can we use it to inform our struggles and affect societal change under capitalism? Integrating our understanding of productive and reproductive spheres and exploring the connection between identity-based oppression and class exploitation, SRT has emerged as a powerful Marxist frame for social analysis and political practice. In this book, Aaron Jaffe extracts SRT's radical potential, relying on recent struggles including the International Women's Strike and the teachers' strikes, showing how we can use SRT to motivate socialist politics and strategy.

Using Social Reproduction Theory to appreciate distinct forms of social domination, this unique and necessary book will have vital strategic implications for anti-capitalists, anti-racists, LGBT activists, disability activists, and feminists. Life's Work

Katharyne Mitchell, Sallie A. Marston, Cindi Katz, 2004-05-21 Life's Work is a study of the shifting spaces and material practices of social reproduction in the global era. The volume blurs the heavily drawn boundaries between production and reproduction, showing through case studies of migration, education, and domesticity how the practices of everyday life challenge these categorical distinctions. New and innovative study of the shifting spaces and material practices of social reproduction in the global era. Investigates changing conceptions of subjectivity, national identity, and modernity. Focuses on both theoretical and practical issues. Includes case studies on migration, education, and domesticity. The Evolution of Political Systems

Steadman Upham, 1990-09-20 Beyond States and Markets

Isabella Bakker, Rachel Silvey, 2008 Exploring difficult and crucial aspects of the transnational gender politics of globalization, this book provides a unique and valuable introduction to the history of the concept of social reproduction from an interdisciplinary perspective.
