Kristensen, Unni From, Helle Kannik Haastrup, 2020-11-30 This edited volume examines cultural criticism in the digital age. It provides new insights into how critical authority and expertise in a cultural context are being reconfigured in digital media and by means of digital media as the boundaries of cultural criticism and who may perform as a cultural critic are redefined or even dissolved. The book applies cross media and cross disciplinary perspectives to advance cultural criticism as a wide ranging and multi-faceted object of study in the 21st century. Presenting a broad collection of case studies including global cases such as the Golden Globe, the Intellectual Dark Web, YouTube, Rotten Tomatoes, and Artsy, and particular national contexts such as Britain, the Czech Republic, Denmark, and the Netherlands, the book showcases the many theoretical and methodological approaches that may serve as useful frameworks for studying new critical voices in the digital age. It will be of interest to media communication and journalism scholars as well as scholars from a range of aesthetic disciplines.
