Library Volunteers Allison Renner, 2019-04-20 Volunteers are one of the most overlooked and underused resources available to nonprofits and other organizations This guide will help find willing volunteers in the community and utilize their skills in a way that benefits the volunteer as well as the organization Overseeing volunteers can be a daunting task On top of all of the other duties library staff are typically responsible for creating a volunteer program from scratch can seem nearly impossible The work doesn't stop once the program is created volunteers have to be trained and retained job duties have to be written assessed and refreshed the benefits of the program need to be documented and weighed While volunteer coordinator is easily a full time job it rarely is in the library or nonprofit world Anything that can make volunteer management easier on library and nonprofit staff will benefit everyone involved

Library Volunteers A Practical Guide for Librarians covers every aspect of volunteer programs from creating to recruiting to retaining and keeping the opportunities fresh and appealing It has information pertaining to elementary age teenage and adult volunteers including innovative and unique volunteer positions that can be offered to them The book covers both school and public library settings but the information provided can be adapted slightly to benefit any organization that has a need for volunteer help It looks beyond the scope of the library to include information on outreach and partnering with community organizations to provide volunteer opportunities to library patrons and volunteers on a broader scale It is a complete handbook for library and nonprofit employees to use to solve any volunteer issue they might have

Volunteers Anne Fargusson, 2020-09-01 I have written this book out of my experience working in small to medium sized churches I address the great challenges of finding training and keeping volunteers There are some simple techniques that I learned to have happy and engaged volunteers who do not get burned out I also spend time describing how you can run a successful children's ministry with a minimum of people and yet not overburdening any of them I talk about ways to combine functions so that you still cover all the age levels but in an efficient and effective manner
