Comparing Fiscal Federalism Alice Valdesalici,Francesco Palermo,2018-02-27 Comparing Fiscal Federalism investigates intergovernmental financial relations and the current de jure and de facto allocation of financial and fiscal powers in compound states from a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective The volume combines theoretical approaches with case studies and involves scholars from various disciplines in order to provide a comprehensive analysis of different approaches developments and trends This includes outlining fiscal federalism s basic principles and overall frameworks investigating current constitutional legislative settings and how financial systems function as well as zooming in on a selection of emerging issues in financial and fiscal relations The single chapters are based on comparative investigations under the umbrella of a broad definition of fiscal federalism that includes all varieties of federal systems

Tax Policy

Options for a United Germany International Monetary Fund,1990-10-01 A central requirement in the rapid movement of German Democratic Republic GDR toward a market economy is the introduction of a market oriented tax system The paper highlights the main features of the traditional socialist tax structure of the GDR and the current tax structure of the Federal Republic of Germany FRG Arguments for an adequate short term tax reform in the GDR are developed in two scenarios contrasting the approach of taking over the FRG tax system adoption scenario and an autonomous tax reform in the GDR reform scenario Both scenarios recommend a flexible adjustment approach which anticipates the medium term development of the German tax system pursuant to domestic reform requirements international tax harmonization and fiscal federalism

Taxation and the Cost of Capital in Hungary and Poland International Monetary Fund,1990-12-01 This paper compares the effective rates of taxation faced by a representative investor located in a major capital exporting country for investments in machinery and buildings in nine capital importing European countries Poland and Hungary are found to have relatively high effective tax rates on equity financed investment The analysis suggests that both countries would benefit from streamlining capital cost recovery allowances and possibly lowering statutory corporate tax rates as permitted by the revenue constraint rather than providing tax preferences for foreign investors
