John Moss

The Diviners New Canadian Library:

The Diviners Margaret Laurence, 1978 The Canadian Novel John Moss, 1983-02 A collection of essays about contemporary Canadian novels by Margaret Atwood Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Alice Munro Mordechai Richler Rudy Wiebe as edited by professor of English at the University of Ottawa John Moss Canadian Books in Print, 1991

Canadian Books in Print Martha Pluscauskas, 1976 Challenging Territory Christian Riegel, 1997-05 In a postmodern and postcolonial age how do we approach the writing of Margaret Laurence Challenging Territory demands of the reader a re evaluation of the basic assumptions that underlie their understanding of Laurence s life and writing by addressing the full range of her writing Laurence is presented as Canadian colonial and postcolonial subject as feminist humanist and political active individual and as essayist translator journalist memoir writer and fiction writer The essays stake out a critical territory as well as offer a challenge to territory previously mapped by the criticism in addition to charting critical space never before traced A Native Heritage Leslie Monkman, 1981-12-15 Disparity and division in religion technology and ideology have characterized relations between English Canadian and Indian cultures through out Canada s history From the earliest declaration of white territorial ownership to the current debate on aboriginal rights red man and white man have had opposing principles and perspectives The most common solutions imposed on these conflicts by white men have relegated the Indian to the fringes of white society and consciousness This survey of English Canadian literature is the first comprehensive examination of a tradition in which white writers turn to the Indian and his culture for standards and models by which they can measure their own values and goals for patterns of cultural destruction transformation and survival and for sources of native heroes and indigenous myths Leslie Monkman examines images of the Indian as they appear in works ranging from Robert Rogers Ponteach or The Savages of America 1766 to Robertson Davies Pontiac and the Green Man 1977 demonstrating how English Canadian writers have illuminated their own world through reference to Indian culture The Indian has been seen as an antagonist as a superior alternative as a member of a vanishing and lamented race and as a hero and the source of the new myths Although white Indian tension often lies in apparently irreconcilable opposites Monkman finds in the literature surveyed complementary images reflecting a common humanity This is an important contribution to a hitherto unexplored area of Canadian literature in English which should give rise to further elaboration of this major theme

Sanctioned Ignorance Paul Martin, 2013-11-15 There is no such thing as the ivory tower Rather there sit side by side numerous windowless towers of knowledge each seeming to have only a small entrance and no discernable exit Paul Martin Multilingual multicultural and vast Canada enjoys a rich diversity of literatures So why does Canadian Literature as it has been taught fail to encompass a common geography history and government yet reveal the diverse experiences of its immigrants long term residents and original peoples Martin s research interviews with 95 professors in 27 universities maps the institutional chasms in communication and the nature of their persistence His own example of venturing out from his tower to dialogue with colleagues shows a way toward cultivating a conception of the literatures of Canada that is expansive and inclusive Canadianists professors of English French Postcolonial and Comparative Literatures and leaders in education will profit from Martin's frank investigations The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich, 2006-01-01 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho-sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan's hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy's social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel's narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions The Canadian Novel: Here and now John Moss, 1978 New Perspectives on Margaret Laurence Greta M. Coger, 1996-05-30 Nearly all of Laurence's works from Africa and Canada are critiqued in this volume The essays highlight Laurence's innovative narrative styles showing how her combinations of oral literary forms and unique shifts in tense and point of view help her achieve vivid character portrayals In addition viewing Laurence's prose as closely textured poetry her use of language theme and image are carefully critiqued The importance of Laurence's portrayal of women's experiences most notably that of aging women is viewed in a feminist framework These new American perspectives on Laurence will be of interest to both scholars and students Sex and Violence in the Canadian Novel John Moss, 1977 Modern English-Canadian Prose Helen Hoy, 1983 Essays on Canadian Writing, 1989 Journal of Canadian Fiction, 1980 Literary Theory Julie Rivkin, Michael Ryan, 2017-02-06 The new edition of this bestselling literary theory anthology has been thoroughly updated to include influential texts from innovative new areas including disability studies eco-criticism and ethics Covers all the major schools and methods that make up the dynamic field of literary theory from Formalism to Postcolonialism Expanded to include work from Stuart Hall Sara Ahmed and Lauren Berlant Pedagogically enhanced with detailed editorial introductions and a comprehensive glossary of terms Mother and Daughter Relationships in the Manawaka Works of Margaret Laurence Helen M. Buss, 1985 A literary criticism focused on the relationship between mothers and daughters within the works of Margaret Laurence Into the Nineties Anna Rutherford, Lars Jensen, Shirley Chew, 1994 A collection of critical essays and creative pieces by leading international women writers and academics Who's who in Canada Charles Whately Parker, Barnet M. Greene, 1999 The Writers' Union of Canada Writers' Union of Canada, 1981 Feliciter, 1998
