The Diwan of Abu'l-Ala Abu al-Ala al-Maarri, 2019-11-25 In The Diwan of Abu l Ala Abu al Ala al Maarri crafts a remarkable tapestry of poetry that explores existential themes human experiences and philosophical inquiries His verses reflect a unique amalgamation of classical Arabic literary traditions and personal introspection characterized by a profound skepticism toward societal norms and religious dogmas The work is notable for its intricate wordplay vivid imagery and a subversive tone that challenges conventional wisdom placing al Maarri in dialogue with the broader intellectual currents of his time particularly the Mu tazilite philosophy and the burgeoning rise of rationalism in the Islamic Golden Age Al Maarri an influential poet born in 973 CE in present day Syria was deeply shaped by a life marked by personal tragedy and physical disability which fostered an acute awareness of the human condition His wide ranging study of philosophy linguistics and theology profoundly informed his writing and provoked him to adopt a stance that critically examined the tenets of faith and morality Al Maarri s intellectual legacy is further enriched by his staunch admiration for reason over superstition making him a unique figure in Arabic literature This anthology is highly recommended for those interested in Arabic literature philosophy or poetic forms that transcend societal boundaries Al Maarri s eloquent and thought provoking verses invite readers to challenge their own beliefs and engage with complex ideas about existence making The Diwan of Abu l Ala an essential read for anyone seeking depth and insight in poetry Diwan of Abul-Ala Henry Baerlein, 1915 The Diwan of Abu'l-Ala Abū al-'Alā' al-Ma'arrī, 1969 The Diwan of Abu'l-Ala Abū al-'Alā Aḥmad ibn 'Abd Allāh (al-Ma'arrī), 1929 The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley, 2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into

English Abu al Ala al Ma arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void

The Diwan of Abu'l-ALA Abu Alala Almaarri, 2016-06-21 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy

Diwan of Abu'L-Ala Henry Baerlein, 2003-08-01 Contains in English translation over one hundred quatrains derived from the works of the medieval Arab poet Abu a ala of Ma arri The quatrains are a joy to read and serve as quotations for various religious and secular topics
