Ascension Lois Benjamin,2024-03-21 In this masterful work of family focused sociology Lois Benjamin considers the lives of Pennie and Roscoe James and their children revealing how a large close knit African American family with humble origins in a small town of North Carolina is shaped by the contours of its religious and ethical value system Despite the challenges of daily experiences the James elders transmitted values to their children that provided them with the resources to thrive and the resilience to meet adversity The James children recount their personal unique perspectives on how faith familial solidarity and savvy entrepreneurship led to their continued generational success Benjamin uses a blend of ethnographic and qualitative methods to place the James family s experiences in broader historical context In doing so she shows that the family s values of compassion empathy and communitarian and enterprising spirit offer hope in this polarized society The Chautauquan ,1894 30 Years, 30,000 Miles Colleen Tretter,2015-07-24 Like it or not we are all running a race called life and we all have the exact same finish line How we run our course matters but even if we stumble and fall there is always an opportunity to learn to race in a better way Runners and non runners alike will appreciate the lessons on such topics as rest and waiting while drawing inspiration to look at life from the viewpoint of seeing what God reveals With humor and a compelling storytelling style Tretter allows you to accompany her on a journey covering thirty years and 30 000 miles You will encounter the extraordinary people and events that can impact an ordinary life With intimate looks at subjects such as winning infertility forgiveness and healing you are sure to be inspired on your own spiritual journey Or at the very least you will be able to make perfect Crme Brule and Thai Sticky Rice Virginia 4-H Club Letter ,1918 Alliance News ,1902 Our Community ,1933
