Welcome To Marwencol:

Welcome to Marwencol Mark E. Hogancamp, Chris Shellen, 2015-11-03 Welcome to Marwencol tells the story of Mark Hogancamp Mark is the subject of the movie Welcome to Marwen December 2018 starring Steve Carrell Welcome to Marwencol is a hybrid art and storybook about Mark Hogancamp and his imaginary World War II era town of Marwencol Learn about Hogancamp's life before and after the attack which left him with no memory of the thirty eight prior years of his life including his ex wife family artistic talents or military service This astonishing story of the redemptive power of art shows Hogancamp's process with behind the scenes photos capsule biographies of each Marwencol character descriptions of each miniature building and Mark's insight into constructing and photographing his world Includes 100 pages of Hogancamp's photographs and stories laid out as a graphic novel Fight scenes dramatic rescues and love triangles are painstakingly arranged to play out before Mr Hogancamp's camera The resulting images are startlingly lifelike poignant and for him therapeutic The New York Times

Welcome to Marwencol, 2010 After being brutally attacked outside a bar and recovering from a coma and extensive physical injuries Mark Hogancamp suffered brain damage and nearly total memory loss Unable to afford therapy he spent the next few years building a scale model World War II era town Marwencol populated with dolls where he lived out his fantasy life and which he documented in photographs When his photographs were discovered by an art magazine a New York gallery invited him to show his work forcing him to choose between his self contained world and the larger world from which he had retreated This book includes a selection of his photographs

The Language and Imagery of Coma and Brain Injury Matthew Colbeck, 2021-04-22 What occurs within coma What does the coma patient experience How does the patient perceive the world outside of coma if at all The simple answer to these questions is that we don't know Yet the sheer volume of literary and media texts would have us believe that we do Examining representations of coma and brain injury across a variety of texts this book investigates common tropes and linguistic devices used to portray the medical condition of coma giving rise to universal mythologies and misconceptions in the public domain Matthew Colbeck looks at how these texts represent or fail to represent long term brain injury drawing on narratives of coma survivors that have been produced and curated through writing groups he has run over the last 10 years Discussing a diverse range of cultural works including novels by Irvine Welsh Stephen King Tom McCarthy and Douglas Coupland as well as film and media texts such as The Sopranos Kill Bill Coma and The Walking Dead Colbeck provides an explanation for our fascination with coma With a proliferation of misleading stories of survival in the media and in literature this book explores the potential impact these have upon our own understanding of coma and its victims
