222 East Chestnut Street Corporation, 1965 Why Democracies Fight Dictators Madison Schramm, 2025-07-04 This book explores how liberal democratic elites perceptions of personalist adversaries dictators make democracies more likely to opt for military solutions than other regime types Madison V Schramm argues that when conflicts of interest between liberal democracies and personalist regimes arise leaders in liberal democracies are predisposed to perceive personalist dictators as particularly threatening and to respond with anger an emotional response that elicits more risk acceptance and aggressive behavior Building on research in political science history sociology and psychology Schramm provides a novel and nuanced explanation of why democracies are so prone to military conflict with personalist regimes Journals of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis for the Years ... Indianapolis (Ind.). Common Council, The Declassified Documents Quarterly Catalog, 1981 Descriptions of documents contained in the microfiche collection of the Declassified Documents Reference System now online by subscription which originated primarily in the Central Intelligence Agency the State Department and various components of the Department of Defense Other agencies including the National Security Council the White House and the FBI among others also contributed documents which range in size and scope from telegrams correspondence unevaluated field reports to lengthy background studies and detailed minutes of cabinet meetings

Hartford Accident and Indemnity Company, 1957 Blood and Sand Alex von Tunzelmann, 2016-10-11 Artfully integrates the complex simultaneous Suez and Hungarian crises of 1956 into a single story of Cold War conflict as no one has before Publishers Weekly The year 1956 was a turning point in history Over sixteen extraordinary days in October and November the Suez Crisis and the Hungarian Revolution pushed the world to the brink of a nuclear conflict and what many at the time were calling World War III Blood and Sand relates this story hour by hour through an international cast of characters Anthony Eden the British prime minister caught in a trap of his own making Gamal Abdel Nasser the bold young populist leader of Egypt David Ben Gurion the strong willed founding prime minister of Israel Guy Mollet the bellicose French prime minister and Dwight D Eisenhower the American president torn between an old world order and a new one in the very same week that his own fate as president was to be decided by the American people This is a fresh new account of these dramatic events and people one that for the first time sets both crises in the context of the global Cold War the Arab Israeli conflict and the treacherous power politics of imperialism and oil Blood and Sand resonates strikingly with the problems of oil control religious fundamentalism and international unity that face the world today and is essential reading for anyone concerned with the state of the modern Middle East and Europe This thrilling ticktock brings the emotional core of geopolitical maneuvering into dramatic focus with portraits of leaders variously honorable pigheaded irresolute pusillanimous and susceptible to mood swings The New Yorker   Toledo City Journal ,1957
