Legal Aspects of Privatisation

Bulent Seven, 2002 The main aims of this thesis are as follows a To present a comprehensive analysis of the concept of privatisation its origins and limits b To identify the legal and institutional framework for privatisation in different European countries from a comparative perspective c To define and analyse particularly legal issues which arise during the privatisation transactions e g labour law competition law etc d To evaluate which features of the successful legal and organisational framework of privatisation have been successful so as to provide guidelines for those individuals and organisations participating in the privatisation exercises. This work found out that there is no simple internationally applicable recipe for privatisation. Various legal methods and techniques can be used to privatise state owned enterprises. Because each country has different circumstances it is impossible to provide a unique model for privatisation. Each country needs to design its own model according to its circumstances. Privatisation is an essential but insufficient element for structural economic reform in the economy and society. Privatisation is not a panacea it is not the solution to every economic and administrative problem. Selling an enterprise to the private sector does not mean an end to all problems. Also privatisation is not an overnight process or a magic touch it will be a lengthy process. Furthermore a decision that something can be privatised does not mean that it should be privatised. In that context privatisation is not good or bad it is an economic and social instrument. If it is well designed it may bring substantial benefits to the economy and society. In many countries many state owned enterprises particularly the ones which are financially weak have still not been privatised. This finding revealed that the privatisation process will be in the political and economic agenda for at least few more decades.

Stakeholder Analysis and Sport Organisations Anna-Maria Strittmatter, Josef Fahlén, Barrie Houlihan, 2021-12-26. This book provides a critical examination of the origins and development of stakeholder theory within sport management research and expands the existing literature by providing insights on stakeholding in sport from various perspectives such as governance, communication and marketing. Examining cases from around the world and from a wide range of different sporting contexts each chapter reflects on key insights derived from stakeholder theory before offering an analysis of the limitations of the theory and the ways in which it might be fruitfully extended or developed. It offers suggestions on how the literature on stakeholding in sport can be advanced in order to provide knowledge relevant not only to sport studies but also to organisation theory more broadly and points to future avenues of inquiry in order to extend the reach of stakeholder theory and other inter organisational perspectives in sport management research. Stakeholder Analysis and Sport Organisations is a fascinating reading for any advanced student, researcher, policy maker or practitioner with an interest in sport management, sport governance, sport development or organisational theory.

Sabah from the Ground Bridget Welsh, Vilashini Somiah, Benjamin Y H Loh, 2021-05-03. Sabah's 2020 election was Malaysia's first pandemic election. While attention has centred on the impact the election had on the increase of COVID 19 this collection brings together scholars, journalists and social scientists who were on the ground in Sabah to analyse what happened, why and the broader implications of the outcome for Sabah and Malaysian politics. The book is the first in depth study of a Sabah election. It is multidisciplinary with authors from different perspectives and the majority of the authors are from Sabah. Traditional explanations prioritize the federal state relationship in shaping Sabah politics. This collection challenges this paradigm suggesting that politics in Sabah should be better understood as a reflection of conditions within Sabah as Sabahans struggle
