All You Need to Know About the Music Business Donald S. Passman, 2013-11-05 The definitive essential guide to the music industry now in its eighth edition revised and updated with crucial information on the industry's major changes in response to rapid technological advances and economic uncertainty For the first time ever the guide also includes advice on the Canadian music scene from entertainment lawyer Chip Sutherland The past two decades have seen file sharing technology and digital streaming services transform the music business across the continent and the changes keep coming at breakneck speed How are record labels adapting to the demand for instantly accessible low cost music while coping with piracy How can Canadian musicians break into the global market And what does it all mean for aspiring and established artists today Donald Passman one of the most trusted music lawyers in the United States offers his sage advice for creating, selling, sharing and protecting your music in the Information Age in this updated Canadian edition of All You Need to Know About the Music Business. And now Canadian musicians have a voice of their own as Chip Sutherland one of Canada's most distinguished entertainment lawyers offers insight into the industry trends and particulars of the Great White North. Executives and artists, experts and novices alike will benefit from these detailed yet easy to understand explanations of the latest technologies, legalities and practices shaping the music business such as Royalties for music transmitted via digital downloads, streaming services, cloud lockers and apps. Updated licensing regulations and industry agreements. Selecting and hiring a winning team of advisors, personal and business managers, agents and attorneys and structuring their commissions, percentages and fees in a way that will protect you and maximize these relationships. Mastering the major and the finer points of contract negotiations. In a bonus Canadian content section at the end of each chapter they give guidance on the basics such as how to Navigate the Canadian marketplace and the transition to a global presence. Find Canadian financial grants and bursaries. Understand regulations governing Canadian content development. Recognize the unique features of Canadian deal structures. Maximize concert touring and merchandising agreements in Canadian and American market places. Anyone interested in making and marketing music musicians, songwriters, agents, promoters, publishers, managers and record company executives needs this crucial text to keep up with the frenetic pace of technological and legal change. No one understands the music business on both sides of the border better than Passman and Sutherland. Let them show you how to make it in one of the world's most dynamic and challenging industries.

Media and Society James Curran, David Hesmondhalgh, 2019-05-16

Media and Society is an established textbook popular worldwide for its insightful and accessible essays from leading international academics on the most pertinent issues in the media field today. With this updated edition, David Hesmondhalgh joins James Curran and a team of leading international scholars to speak to current issues relating to media and gender, media and democracy, sociology of news, the global internet, the political impact of the media, popular culture, the effects of digitisation on media industries, media and emotion and other vital topics. The media are in a state of ferment and are undergoing far-reaching change. The sixth edition tries to make sense of the media's transformation and its wider implications. Purely descriptive accounts date fast so the emphasis has been on identifying the central issues and problems arising from media change and on evaluating its wider consequences. What is judged to be the staple elements of the field has evolved over time as well as becoming more international in orientation. Yet the overriding aim of the book to be useful to students has remained constant. This text is an essential resource for all media communication and film studies students who want to broaden their knowledge and understanding of how the media operates and affects society across the globe.
