Colonial Australian Fiction Ken Gelder, Rachael Weaver, 2017-04-07 Over the course of the nineteenth century a remarkable array of types appeared and disappeared in Australian literature: the swagman, the larrikin, the colonial detective, the bushranger, the currency lass, the squatter, and more. Some had a powerful influence on the colonies' developing sense of identity; others were more ephemeral. But all had a role to play in shaping and reflecting the social and economic circumstances of life in the colonies.
