

The background is a complex collage. At the top, there are two large, detailed eyes with green and grey irises. Above them is a dark, starry night sky. To the right, there are three faces of a woman with blonde hair and ornate headpieces. Below the eyes and sky, there is a large, dark, textured shape that resembles a swan or a bird. The text 'SWAN FEAST' is written in a large, white, serif font, and 'NATALIE EILBERT' is written in a smaller, white, sans-serif font below it.

Swan Feast Natalie Eilbert:

Swan Feast Natalie Eilbert, 2015 Poetry Natalie Eilbert's powerful first book is a twenty-first century hymn to the Venus of Willendorf a 30 000 year old figurine whose ample body is a protest against all that seeks to diminish us Like Plath of Lady Lazarus Eilbert speaks with unbridled but precise ra in lines of propulsive music she takes female self loathing head on and reveals it for what it is pervasive invasive and invented like a city that threatens to divest us of our human animal body Deeply resistant these poems get the body back feeding it adoring it finally marrying it with flamboyance flare and love This is the voice of contemporary feminism brazen smart unafraid and desirous of nothing less than life Julie Carr Natalie Eilbert uses an immense attention in sentences filigreed and permissive to show how the sexuality of the real and imagined Venus de Willendorf lives in our pulses is our pulse our Texas our asses on the hood of a car in a trailer park Every scrap that's flashed into this poet's mind transmutes into an icon for the flesh and the chaotic negotiation of one's desires Few people can represent such vital teeming complexity with such bridled rage Plath stands in the recent past of this voice Venus de Willendorf becomes a force within it you cannot imagine Eilbert standing so near to us flinches at nothing Cynthia Arrieu King There is no document of civilization that isn't also its ruins Swan Feast is the banquet of a fallen goddess told through the trance of an autobiographical duckling girl The transforming voice is visionary She connects the discovery of the Venus of Willendorf to the discovery of oil in the Middle East implicating imperial industrialism to the passing away of Venus into faded memory and historical anorexia Empire is the tomb of the goddess To excavate is a hilarious privilege and its anachronism borrows illumination from darkness The duckling is resurrecting ancient powers whose excavation ride on rage grief a woman's paradoxically empowered desperation which finds solidity in disappearance In the wake of suffering we may remember ourselves Out of ruin an alien star rises Feng Sun Chen Time and the world want the body and are coming for it Natalie Eilbert tears the body down and makes time and the world go looking for something else to want Politically charged performing a gnosticism of our human physiology and impressionistic like a train Swan Feast is both a book of poems and a pre-emptive strike Josh Bell
